Senate Rejects Atomic Bill

Measure Sent Back To House By 48-41 Vote

Refuse Plea By Ike That Passage Vital For U. S. Interests

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Senate refused to accept a compromise version of the administration's atomic energy bill today despite an 11th hour plea by President Eisenhower that passage was "in the vital interest of the United States."

It rejected the legislation on a 48-41 roll call vote, sending it back to a second conference with the House.

Senate conferees were instructed on a voice vote to insist that a section be written into the bill requiring 10 years of compulsory patent sharing by private industry entering the atomic power field.

Patent rights proved to be the big stumbling block when administration leaders tried to push the controversial legislation through the Senate under a three-hour debate limitation agreement.

Means Another Delay

The Senate's action may mean another delay in the adjournment of Congress, although some senators who opposed the first compromise said it could take only a few hours to get House agreement on the changes they want. The House approved the compromise version last week. It probably will take up the bill again when it reconvenes Monday.

Practically rewriting the Atomic Energy Act of 1946, the bill provides for the entry of private industry into the development of atomic energy, permits the Atomic Energy Commission to construct full-scale power plants if it gets special congressional authorization and allows the president to share more nuclear secrets with friendly nations.

Last month, in what Majority Leader Knowland of California called "a full-fledged filibuster," the Senate debated the measure for 13 days.

As the bill came back to the Senate in compromise form it provided for granting private firms exclusive 17-year patents, renewable for the same period, on any atomic devices and processes not conceived or made under government auspices.

It also provided that, for the first five years, concerns agreeing to share their patents would be given preference by the AEC when it grants licenses to manufacture commercial atomic equipment.

Bill Wasn't Enough

But a strong bloc of Democratic senators said this wasn't enough—that the bill would tend to create a monopoly in the atomic energy business, giving a few powerful companies the benefits of six billion dollars in taxpayers' money invested by the government in atomic pioneering.

Administration forces argued the legislation was drawn in the spirit of American free enterprise and that there were adequate safeguards against creation of a monopoly. Eisenhower took the same position.

But when the test came 42 Democrats, 5 Republicans and Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) refused to accept the compromise. Republicans voting against the administration on the issue were senators Cooper (Ky), Dworshak (Idaho), Langer (ND), Malone (Nev) and Young (ND).

Thirty-nine Republicans voted for the bill. They were supported by two Democrats, Senators Byrd (Va) and Fulbright (Ark).

Asylum Given To Top Rank Russian Spy

Yuro A. Rastovorov Had Fled To U.S. From Soviet In Jan.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—The United States granted political asylum today to Yuro A. Rastovorov, a top-ranking former Russian spy in Japan who deserted to the west last Jan. 24.

At a dramatic special news conference here, Rastovorov personally told reporters he deserted to the West because:

"I wanted to live like a decent human being. I wanted to live decently and I wanted to be able to treat other people decently."

Russia was formally notified in a note sent to the Soviet Embassy today that their long-missing intelligence man was in American hands and has been given a temporary visa to stay in the United States.

Refuses To Show Up

Soviet Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin, apparently learning in advance of the development, refused to show up at the State Department to accept the American note from Undersecretary W. Bedell Smith.

Zarubin declined even to send a Soviet diplomat to accept the note in his place — an attitude which the State Department labeled "unprecedented".

Rastovorov was reported to be Russia's master spy in Japan, and a personal protege of Lavrenty Beria, the secret police chief who was executed by the Soviets last Dec. 23.

But, in talking to reporters at a news conference sponsored by the State Department tonight, he professed to be merely an Intelligence operative and not the boss of the Soviet spy net in Japan.

However, American officials said Rastovorov definitely masterminded one spy network and knew of the existence of three others which operated under instructions from Moscow in the Far East.

Tanned and dressed nattily in a light gray summer suit, Rastovorov frankly acknowledged to reporters that as a spy he received information from "medium-high" Japanese government officials and others.

Failed In Efforts

But, he said, the Soviets failed in their efforts to pick up spy information from American servicemen and Americans generally.

The 34-year-old Russian said that during the seven months he has been under American custody he has revealed all the Intelligence information that he knows. Japanese government representatives also have been permitted to question him.

"Now I hope I can make a new life in this country," he said, "a normal life like the lives of other people. I hope I can become an American like other Americans."

Rastovorov's flight to the West was viewed by top American Intelligence chiefs as one of the most successful cold war achievements to date.

Laundry Machine Kills Youth, 17

BERLIN, Md., Aug. 13 (AP)—William Lee Dickson, 17, who had a summertime job at the Sunshine Laundry, was killed today when he stuck his arm in a big drying machine.

W. Ryder Jones, manager of the Eastern Shore laundry chain, told authorities young Dickson for some unexplained reason lifted the lid of the extractor and stuck his arm in.

The whirling machine jerked off the arm at the shoulder. Dr. Herman Robbins, Worcester County medical examiner, said the boy died of shock and loss of blood.

French Postpone Debate On EDC

Will Study Changes Until Aug. 28

PARIS, Aug. 13 (AP)—The French National Assembly today again postponed debate on the European Defense Committee. It gave itself until Aug. 28 to study Premier Pierre Mendes-France's proposed changes before formally considering ratifying the EDC treaty.

Previously, debate had been scheduled for Aug. 24 but modifications wanted by Mendes-France were not approved by his Cabinet until today.

The delay had been asked by the Assembly steering committee representing all major political groups in order to permit additional time for study of the Premier's modifications. The Assembly approved the committee recommendation by 510 to 107 votes.

Hopes For Acceptance

Mendes-France hopes to win acceptance of his proposed modifications from the five other nations in the soldier pool as the price of French acceptance.

Mendes-France expects to hand over his proposals to representatives of Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, West Germany and Italy tomorrow. This is intended to give the other countries time to study the project before the meeting of the six EDC Foreign Ministers in Brussels August 19-20.

The National Assembly talks will run through three sessions a day Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The weekend work was decided on to push the work ahead so the Parliament can go on vacation as soon as possible.

Mendes-France has put the seal of secrecy on his ministers. The Premier himself has refused to give any details.

Some reports have said that the Premier intends to ask the National Assembly to approve the European army, along with the Allied Bonn treaty to restore German sovereignty, and then send the Parliament on vacation. This would leave action by the Council of the Republic, advisory upper house of Parliament, until November.

Will Seek Meeting

Meantime, these reports say, Mendes-France would make another effort to get a Big Four meeting to ease world tension, with a special eye to try for Russian approval of free elections to unify Germany. The logic for this is that if Russia again blocks German unification, then the French Parliament would be practically forced to accept the European Army.

Another version is that Mendes-France will insist on ratification by the full Parliament before the vacation period. With this action taken, and his standing in the Western camp solidified, the Premier would then try for the Big Four meeting.

The French situation was reported involved also in drafting of a Western Big Three reply to Russia's proposals for a European security conference. Diplomatic informants in London said the United States and Britain want to defer any further meeting with the Russians until the EDC project is launched, but France favors at least one more try for a Big Four agreement on a German peace settlement.

Mendes-France still faces a tremendous selling job to make his modifications acceptable both to the other five nations in EDC, and to the French Parliament.

The other nations, especially Holland, have been reluctant to approve anything which might call for further parliamentary action. Holland, Germany, Belgium and Luxembourg have already ratified the treaty in its original form. Italy will not act until this fall, and could take up the modifications at the same time.

Senate Passes Social Security Benefit Increase

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Senate tonight gave overwhelming approval to President Eisenhower's program to bring additional millions within the nation's social security system and increase benefits across the board.

The measure sped through the Senate within a few hours after debate started late in the day. It was a "must" on the President's legislative program. Passage was by voice vote.

The Senate version, adding an estimated 6,700,000 persons to the 62 millions now covered and providing retirement and survivor benefit hikes effective next January, must now be reconciled with a companion House-passed bill which differs in several particulars.

The measure would provide an immediate average increase of $6 a month for 6½ million retired workers when it becomes effective next Jan. 1. The new monthly minimum benefit would go from the present $25 to $30, the maximum from $85 to $108.50. Another key provision would raise by $12 a year the annual payment of many covered workers — and their employers —into the social security fund.

As passed by the Senate, the measure would do these things:

1. Add about 6,700,000 workers to the estimated 62 millions now covered. Major blocks of workers which would be added are these: farm employes—2,600,000; state and local government employes—a potential 3½ million; household domestics — 250,000; ministers—260,000.

2. Raise the taxable earnings base from the present $3,600 to $4,200. The social security tax would be applied to that amount. Now 2 per cent on both employers and employees, this tax is due to rise under existing law to 2½ per cent in 1959, 3 per cent in 1964, 3¼ per cent in 1969. The new measure would boost it further to 3½ per cent in 1970 and 4½ per cent in 1975.

3. Boost the present social security payments for 6½ million retired workers an average $6 a month next January, when the expanded tax base would also take effect.

The bill would increase the maximum family payment for a retired worker from the present $168.75 to $200. And it would raise the "primary" benefit — that is, the benefit to a single retired worker — from the present rate of $25-$85 to $30-$98.50 a month, depending on credits established by the worker.

Italian Cave Explorers Go 1,900 Feet Beneath Earth

VERONA, Italy, Aug. 13 (AP)—A team of explorers claimed today they had plumbed the greatest depth man ever has reached in a natural cavern inside the earth.

The reported depth of 1,900 feet or a bit less is about 400 feet more than the height of New York's Empire State Building the world's highest skyscraper.

The team leader, Trieste Geology Prof. Walter Maucci, reached the surface in mid-afternoon after almost 45 hours in the blackness of the Preata Abyss. He claimed a world record.

Maucci reported he and four others reached the bottom at a depth they estimated between 570 and 580 meters (1,869 to 1,902 feet). More exact calculations will be made later.

Maucci said he could not count a French-claimed record of 658 meters (2,152 feet) at Trou-de-glaz because it included some horizontal passages and was not all vertical measurement.

The Preata Abyss near here is in the 4,921-foot Acquilio Mountain.

Maucci said that at the bottom of the abyss they reached and crossed Black Lake, a pool 35 meters wide which in 1927 stopped Verona engineer Luigi de Battisti.

Battisti had carved into the dripping rock his name, 1927, and the word "Mussolini." Alongside it Maucci's team cut: "Societa Adriatica di Scienze Naturali," the Trieste organization that sponsored the new descent, and the date 1954.

Government Pays M'Carthy Lawyer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—The lawyer who represents Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) in the forthcoming Senate investigation of McCarthy's official conduct will be paid out of government funds.

This decision was announced today by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), chairman of the special committee which is scheduled to start hearings Aug. 30 on moves by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) and others to censure McCarthy.

McCarthy had suggested that the Senate pay his lawyer. He also called on the Legislative Reference Service to look over the precedents —the history of cases in which other members of Congress have been given counsel in election contests and other proceedings.

Watkins said the decision to provide McCarthy with a lawyer—of his own choice—has the approval of both Republican and Democratic senate leaders and Sen. Jenner (R-Ind), chairman of the Rules Committee.

McCarthy didn't say what lawyer he would pick. The expectation was that he would name Edward Bennett Williams, a Washington attorney who has represented him in the past.

Debt Ceiling Is Raised By Senate Vote

$6 Billion Raise Is Temporary Act Good To June 30

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP) — A six-billion-dollar increase in the national debt limit—good until next June 30—was approved in short order by the Senate today. The present ceiling is 275 billion dollars.

There was no debate on the question, only a discussion marked by expressions of sorrow that the Senate was forced to act on urgent administration appeals for authority to borrow more money so the government can meet its bills.

Amends House Bill

Actually the Senate acted to amend a House bill which would have permitted a permanent 15-billion-dollar increase in the debt ceiling. The House passed this measure at the last session of Congress, but it ran into a dead-end in the Senate Finance Committee.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey recently went before the committee and asked for a compromise increase of 10 billion dollars, half of it to be effective until June 30, 1955.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va) won adoption of the six billion figure in committee, with the added stipulation that it would be a temporary boost until June 30. He said today this arrangement would provide the Treasury with a minimum working balance of about four billion dollars between now and next June.

Government obligations subject to the debt ceiling are now hovering just below the 275-billion-dollar ceiling.

The Senate's voice vote passage of the bill came after a speech by Byrd and brief comments from Sen. Millikin (R-Colo) and Sen. George (D-Ga), ranking minority member of the Finance Committee, and a couple of others.

George said he was "not too optimistic" that the fixed ceiling of 275 billion would be found adequate after the end of this fiscal year next June 30.

Income Taxes Will Drop

He noted estimates that corporation income taxes will drop from the present 52 per cent to 47 per cent next spring and that there will be pressure for reductions in excise taxes next year.

These factors, he said, "reduced the chance" that the government would be able to continue under the present fixed ceiling.

But George said he was confident the Treasury could get through between now and next June with the temporary extra borrowing authority.

Millikin, chairman of the Finance Committee, told the Senate that if the Treasury doesn't get the temporary six-billion-dollar boost it wouldn't be able to pay bills arising from the defense program early next year.

Millikin said tax receipts will fall nine billion dollars behind Treasury payments between now and Jan. 15. But he said most of this amount will be made up by increased revenues in the first six months of 1955.

16 Crewmen Chute From Crippled KB29 Which Crashes, Burns

NEWARK, Ohio, Aug. 13 (AP)—All 16 crewmen parachuted from an Air Force KB29 refueling plane near here today, and the big plane, two engines dead and another afire, crashed and burned in a field. The plane was on a routine training flight from Dow Air Force Base near Bangor, Me.

Sheriff's deputies reported all 16 men had been found. Three were treated at a hospital at nearby Zanesville for bruises and cuts.

After Capt. George D. French, 33, Southgate, Calif., aircraft commander, ordered the ship abandoned, the plane proceeded 20 miles, crashed and exploded about 200 yards from a federal fish hatchery a mile and a half southwest of nearby Hebron.

Mayor Is Again Queried About Sheppard Murder

CLEVELAND, Aug. 13 (AP)—Bay Village Mayor J. Spencer Houk was quizzed again today on what he knew about the Sheppard murder case. After five hours he went home, and Police Chief Frank W. Story said there was no reason to hold him.

The chief also said "we had to restrain the mayor physically" when he was confronted at Central Police Station by Dr. Stephen Sheppard, brother of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard. He added that the mayor wanted to "punch him in the nose."

Dr. Samuel Sheppard is being held in county jail on a first degree murder charge in the July 4 slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn, in their Bay Village home.

Story said Mayor Houk was questioned for the fourth time since the investigation began because of information supplied by Dr. Stephen Sheppard.

The chief said nothing of value to the murder investigation had been uncovered in today's questioning of the mayor.

Three hours after the quizzing began, Dr. Stephen Sheppard was called into the room where police were talking to Houk. After another two hours, both left, declining comment. The mayor merely said "I'm going home."

On one of the three previous occasions when Mayor Houk was questioned, he had taken a lie detector test. He is a neighbor of the Sheppards, and a close friend.

Houk earlier had reported the defendant called him on the morning of the murder and said "they've killed Marilyn."

Earlier today, attorneys for Dr. Samuel Sheppard succeeded in having his preliminary murder hearing removed from Bay Village. Common Pleas Judge Frank J. Merrick upheld their contention that Acting Mayor Gershom M. Barber of Bay Village was prejudiced.

Barber took over the case after Mayor Houk stepped aside on the basis of being a friend of Dr. Sheppard and a material witness in the case.

Couple Fixes Boat With Bobby Pins

PORT HURON, Mich., Aug. 13 (AP)—Maybe Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bonsall have been reading advertisements about "do it yourself."

Anyway the pin which permitted their outboard motor to spin the propeller shaft sheared off in Anchor Bay between their Pearl Beach home and New Baltimore Wednesday night. They had no oars. Their boat drifted into tall reeds.

Alarmed when they failed to return, relatives notified the Coast Guard. An all-night search proved fruitless, but yesterday they were spotted merrily chugging toward home.

They had fashioned, in daylight, a new pin from two of Mrs. Bonsall's bobby pins.

Fire Rages Out Of Control In Kingston Prison

KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 13 (AP)—Fire raged out of control tonight in Kingston Penitentiary and 70 guards with shotguns and rifles were posted on the thick outer walks to prevent any escapes. Prisoners were detained in shops where they were working when the fire broke out and spread to two cell blocks.

Officials said there was danger that the blaze would spread to the central dome above the burning cell blocks. If that happened, there would be a possibility of the flames engulfing several other blocks which fan out from the dome like spokes on a wheel.

As firemen attacked the blaze, calling in reinforcements from city and township departments, they proceeded with efforts to confine the fire to the section where it broke out. No one was reported injured.

The chief concern of officials was to see that none of the 1,000 prisoners escaped.

Chou Calls For Formosa Capture

LONDON, Aug. 13 (AP) — Red China's Premier Chou En-lai today called for determined action to capture Formosa, island refuge of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and his Nationalist China government.

Peiping radio said Chou made his statement in a foreign policy report to the People's Government Council.

"Liberation" of Formosa is necessary, Chou declared, "so as to safeguard China's sovereignty and territorial integrity."

The Formosa Strait separating Chiang's island and the Red China mainland is 100 miles across at its narrowest point.

Chou's pronouncement follows a recent series of broadcasts by Red China military leaders demanding overthrow of Chiang's forces. Chinese Nationalist leaders have described this talk as more for diplomatic quandary than for military purposes.

In Washington, officials shrugged off Chou's remarks as part of Red China's war of nerves against the Nationalists. The State Department made no comment, but pointed out that Secretary of State Dulles said at a news conference last week American forces are committed to help the Nationalists beat off any Red invasion of Formosa. The island has been under U.S. naval protection since the Korean War outbreak in 1950.

Police Seeking Man Bitten By Rabid Cow

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Aug. 13 (AP)—The Florida Highway Patrol is hunting a vacationing tourist to warn him that the cow which bit him back home may be infected with rabies.

Indiana State Police at Putnamville, Ind., and the sheriff of Morgan County, Ind., asked the Florida patrol to put out a pickup order for Ray Vickery and warn him to report to the nearest hospital for a checkup.

Nine Communist Leaders Guilty Of Conspiracy

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13 (AP)—Nine Communists today were found guilty of conspiracy to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the United States government.

A jury of seven women and five men deliberated 7 hours and 58 minutes before returning a verdict against the defendants who did not deny party membership but claimed their activities were not illegal.

The verdict ended the longest trial in the eastern Pennsylvania U.S. District Court history — 47 days of testimony and argument.

Judge J. Cullen Ganey deferred sentencing pending argument on a defense plea for a judgment of acquittal or a new trial. He set Aug. 23 for the hearing.

The nine Philadelphia area Red leaders face a maximum sentence of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine each for violation of the Smith Act. The conviction brings to 81 the national total of convictions under the Smith Act.

Judge Ganey continued the defendants in bail, $20,000 for Joseph Kuzma, and $10,000 each for the other eight, but ordered them not to leave the jurisdiction of the court without prior permission.

Specifically, the nine defendants were charged with "unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly organizing and helping to organize, as the Communist party of the United States of America, a society, group and assembly of persons who teach and advocate the overthrow of the United States by force and violence."

Other defendants were Robert Klonsky, 35; Sam Gobeloff, 44, also known as Joseph Roberts; Benjamin Weiss, 39; David Dubensky, 46, also known as David Davis; Thomas Nebried, 51; Irwin Katz, 35; Walter Lowenfels, 56; and Sherman Labovitz, 29, all of Philadelphia.

Navy To Release 45,000 Officers From Reserves

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP) — Forty-five thousand inactive officers are going to be dropped from the Navy's reserve rolls.

Announcing this today, Asst. Secretary of the Navy James H. Smith Jr., said the slash is part of an over-all tightening up program for the Naval Reserve.

All those pruned out of the program will be given honorable discharges, Smith told a news conference. He added the 45,000 includes "valuable friends of the Navy and veterans with fine service records."

Officers affected are those who have not been in reserve activities for the past three years or more. Letters of notification will start going out within a few days.

Enlisted reservists will not be affected, Smith said. The Navy has only about 400,000 of these now, and the Pentagon plans to ask Congress to approve an increase to 600,000 next year.

Smith said more inactive officers will be dropped later, after their records and their wishes with respect to further reserve service have been looked over.

Today's announcement followed a poll of reserve officers which the Navy started last year. More than 100,000 inactive reservists were sent questionnaires. Slightly more than half replied. Some 25,000 resigned their commissions, another 20,000 retired and about 7,000 resumed active participation in the reserve program.

Smith said the 45,000 to be dropped now are among those who failed to respond to the Navy's search for information.

The new slash does not include medical and dental officers, aviators, officers who served actively in the Korean War or to those with more than 18 years' satisfactory service.

Meantime, these reports say, Mendes-France would make another effort to get a Big Four meeting to ease world tension, with a special eye to try for Russian approval of free elections to unify Germany. The logic for this is that if Russia again blocks German unification, then the French Parliament would be practically forced to accept the European Army.

Another version is that Mendes-France will insist on ratification by the full Parliament before the vacation period. With this action taken, and his standing in the Western camp solidified, the Premier would then try for the Big Four meeting.

The French situation was reported involved also in drafting of a Western Big Three reply to Russia's proposals for a European security conference. Diplomatic informants in London said the United States and Britain want to defer any further meeting with the Russians until the EDC project is launched, but France favors at least one more try for a Big Four agreement on a German peace settlement.

Mendes-France still faces a tremendous selling job to make his modifications acceptable both to the other five nations in EDC, and to the French Parliament.

The other nations, especially Holland, have been reluctant to approve anything which might call for further parliamentary action. Holland, Germany, Belgium and Luxembourg have already ratified the treaty in its original form. Italy will not act until this fall, and could take up the modifications at the same time.

Italian Cave Explorers Go 1,900 Feet Beneath Earth

VERONA, Italy, Aug. 13 (AP)—A team of explorers claimed today they had plumbed the greatest depth man ever has reached in a natural cavern inside the earth.

The reported depth of 1,900 feet or a bit less is about 400 feet more than the height of New York's Empire State Building the world's highest skyscraper.

The team leader, Trieste Geology Prof. Walter Maucci, reached the surface in mid-afternoon after almost 45 hours in the blackness of the Preata Abyss. He claimed a world record.

Maucci reported he and four others reached the bottom at a depth they estimated between 570 and 580 meters (1,869 to 1,902 feet). More exact calculations will be made later.

Maucci said he could not count a French-claimed record of 658 meters (2,152 feet) at Trou-de-glaz because it included some horizontal passages and was not all vertical measurement.

The Preata Abyss near here is in the 4,921-foot Acquilio Mountain.

Maucci said that at the bottom of the abyss they reached and crossed Black Lake, a pool 35 meters wide which in 1927 stopped Verona engineer Luigi de Battisti.

Battisti had carved into the dripping rock his name, 1927, and the word "Mussolini." Alongside it Maucci's team cut: "Societa Adriatica di Scienze Naturali," the Trieste organization that sponsored the new descent, and the date 1954.

Senate Passes Social Security Benefit Increase

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Senate tonight gave overwhelming approval to President Eisenhower's program to bring additional millions within the nation's social security system and increase benefits across the board.

The measure sped through the Senate within a few hours after debate started late in the day. It was a "must" on the President's legislative program. Passage was by voice vote.

The Senate version, adding an estimated 6,700,000 persons to the 62 millions now covered and providing retirement and survivor benefit hikes effective next January, must now be reconciled with a companion House-passed bill which differs in several particulars.

The measure would provide an immediate average increase of $6 a month for 6½ million retired workers when it becomes effective next Jan. 1. The new monthly minimum benefit would go from the present $25 to $30, the maximum from $85 to $108.50. Another key provision would raise by $12 a year the annual payment of many covered workers — and their employers —into the social security fund.

As passed by the Senate, the measure would do these things:

1. Add about 6,700,000 workers to the estimated 62 millions now covered. Major blocks of workers which would be added are these: farm employes—2,600,000; state and local government employes—a potential 3½ million; household domestics — 250,000; ministers—260,000.

2. Raise the taxable earnings base from the present $3,600 to $4,200. The social security tax would be applied to that amount. Now 2 per cent on both employers and employees, this tax is due to rise under existing law to 2½ per cent in 1959, 3 per cent in 1964, 3¼ per cent in 1969. The new measure would boost it further to 3½ per cent in 1970 and 4½ per cent in 1975.

3. Boost the present social security payments for 6½ million retired workers an average $6 a month next January, when the expanded tax base would also take effect.

The bill would increase the maximum family payment for a retired worker from the present $168.75 to $200. And it would raise the "primary" benefit — that is, the benefit to a single retired worker — from the present rate of $25-$85 to $30-$98.50 a month, depending on credits established by the worker.

Government Pays M'Carthy Lawyer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—The lawyer who represents Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) in the forthcoming Senate investigation of McCarthy's official conduct will be paid out of government funds.

This decision was announced today by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), chairman of the special committee which is scheduled to start hearings Aug. 30 on moves by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) and others to censure McCarthy.

McCarthy had suggested that the Senate pay his lawyer. He also called on the Legislative Reference Service to look over the precedents —the history of cases in which other members of Congress have been given counsel in election contests and other proceedings.

Watkins said the decision to provide McCarthy with a lawyer—of his own choice—has the approval of both Republican and Democratic senate leaders and Sen. Jenner (R-Ind), chairman of the Rules Committee.

McCarthy didn't say what lawyer he would pick. The expectation was that he would name Edward Bennett Williams, a Washington attorney who has represented him in the past.

Fire Guts Church

MONTREAL, Aug. 13 (AP)—A five-hour fire today gutted the St. Madeleine Roman Catholic Church in suburban Outremont, causing an estimated $100,000 damage.

Debt Ceiling Is Raised By Senate Vote

$6 Billion Raise Is Temporary Act Good To June 30

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP) — A six-billion-dollar increase in the national debt limit—good until next June 30—was approved in short order by the Senate today. The present ceiling is 275 billion dollars.

There was no debate on the question, only a discussion marked by expressions of sorrow that the Senate was forced to act on urgent administration appeals for authority to borrow more money so the government can meet its bills.

Amends House Bill

Actually the Senate acted to amend a House bill which would have permitted a permanent 15-billion-dollar increase in the debt ceiling. The House passed this measure at the last session of Congress, but it ran into a dead-end in the Senate Finance Committee.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey recently went before the committee and asked for a compromise increase of 10 billion dollars, half of it to be effective until June 30, 1955.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va) won adoption of the six billion figure in committee, with the added stipulation that it would be a temporary boost until June 30. He said today this arrangement would provide the Treasury with a minimum working balance of about four billion dollars between now and next June.

Government obligations subject to the debt ceiling are now hovering just below the 275-billion-dollar ceiling.

The Senate's voice vote passage of the bill came after a speech by Byrd and brief comments from Sen. Millikin (R-Colo) and Sen. George (D-Ga), ranking minority member of the Finance Committee, and a couple of others.

George said he was "not too optimistic" that the fixed ceiling of 275 billion would be found adequate after the end of this fiscal year next June 30.

Income Taxes Will Drop

He noted estimates that corporation income taxes will drop from the present 52 per cent to 47 per cent next spring and that there will be pressure for reductions in excise taxes next year.

These factors, he said, "reduced the chance" that the government would be able to continue under the present fixed ceiling.

But George said he was confident the Treasury could get through between now and next June with the temporary extra borrowing authority.

Millikin, chairman of the Finance Committee, told the Senate that if the Treasury doesn't get the temporary six-billion-dollar boost it wouldn't be able to pay bills arising from the defense program early next year.

Millikin said tax receipts will fall nine billion dollars behind Treasury payments between now and Jan. 15. But he said most of this amount will be made up by increased revenues in the first six months of 1955.

16 Crewmen Chute From Crippled KB29 Which Crashes, Burns

NEWARK, Ohio, Aug. 13 (AP)—All 16 crewmen parachuted from an Air Force KB29 refueling plane near here today, and the big plane, two engines dead and another afire, crashed and burned in a field. The plane was on a routine training flight from Dow Air Force Base near Bangor, Me.

Sheriff's deputies reported all 16 men had been found. Three were treated at a hospital at nearby Zanesville for bruises and cuts.

Buys Famous Painting

Dr. Hanns R. Teichert, 53, uses a magnifying glass on a painting he purchased from a New York antique dealer for $450. It turned out to be a Madonna and Child by Leonardo da Vinci worth more than a million dollars. Mrs. Teichert also is intrigued by the "find" because when the purchase was made another painting was on the surface. Cleansing revealed the da Vinci beneath.

Mayor Is Again Queried About Sheppard Murder

CLEVELAND, Aug. 13 (AP)—Bay Village Mayor J. Spencer Houk was quizzed again today on what he knew about the Sheppard murder case. After five hours he went home, and Police Chief Frank W. Story said there was no reason to hold him.

The chief also said "we had to restrain the mayor physically" when he was confronted at Central Police Station by Dr. Stephen Sheppard, brother of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard. He added that the mayor wanted to "punch him in the nose."

Dr. Samuel Sheppard is being held in county jail on a first degree murder charge in the July 4 slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn, in their Bay Village home.

Story said Mayor Houk was questioned for the fourth time since the investigation began because of information supplied by Dr. Stephen Sheppard.

The chief said nothing of value to the murder investigation had been uncovered in today's questioning of the mayor.

Three hours after the quizzing began, Dr. Stephen Sheppard was called into the room where police were talking to Houk. After another two hours, both left, declining comment. The mayor merely said "I'm going home."

On one of the three previous occasions when Mayor Houk was questioned, he had taken a lie detector test. He is a neighbor of the Sheppards, and a close friend.

Houk earlier had reported the defendant called him on the morning of the murder and said "they've killed Marilyn."

Earlier today, attorneys for Dr. Samuel Sheppard succeeded in having his preliminary murder hearing removed from Bay Village. Common Pleas Judge Frank J. Merrick upheld their contention that Acting Mayor Gershom M. Barber of Bay Village was prejudiced.

Barber took over the case after Mayor Houk stepped aside on the basis of being a friend of Dr. Sheppard and a material witness in the case.

Couple Fixes Boat With Bobby Pins

PORT HURON, Mich., Aug. 13 (AP)—Maybe Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bonsall have been reading advertisements about "do it yourself."

Anyway the pin which permitted their outboard motor to spin the propeller shaft sheared off in Anchor Bay between their Pearl Beach home and New Baltimore Wednesday night. They had no oars. Their boat drifted into tall reeds.

Alarmed when they failed to return, relatives notified the Coast Guard. An all-night search proved fruitless, but yesterday they were spotted merrily chugging toward home.

They had fashioned, in daylight, a new pin from two of Mrs. Bonsall's bobby pins.

Fire Rages Out Of Control In Kingston Prison

KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 13 (AP)—Fire raged out of control tonight in Kingston Penitentiary and 70 guards with shotguns and rifles were posted on the thick outer walks to prevent any escapes. Prisoners were detained in shops where they were working when the fire broke out and spread to two cell blocks.

Officials said there was danger that the blaze would spread to the central dome above the burning cell blocks. If that happened, there would be a possibility of the flames engulfing several other blocks which fan out from the dome like spokes on a wheel.

As firemen attacked the blaze, calling in reinforcements from city and township departments, they proceeded with efforts to confine the fire to the section where it broke out. No one was reported injured.

The chief concern of officials was to see that none of the 1,000 prisoners escaped.

Chou Calls For Formosa Capture

LONDON, Aug. 13 (AP) — Red China's Premier Chou En-lai today called for determined action to capture Formosa, island refuge of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and his Nationalist China government.

Peiping radio said Chou made his statement in a foreign policy report to the People's Government Council.

"Liberation" of Formosa is necessary, Chou declared, "so as to safeguard China's sovereignty and territorial integrity."

The Formosa Strait separating Chiang's island and the Red China mainland is 100 miles across at its narrowest point.

Chou's pronouncement follows a recent series of broadcasts by Red China military leaders demanding overthrow of Chiang's forces. Chinese Nationalist leaders have described this talk as more for diplomatic quandary than for military purposes.

In Washington, officials shrugged off Chou's remarks as part of Red China's war of nerves against the Nationalists. The State Department made no comment, but pointed out that Secretary of State Dulles said at a news conference last week American forces are committed to help the Nationalists beat off any Red invasion of Formosa. The island has been under U.S. naval protection since the Korean War outbreak in 1950.

Police Seeking Man Bitten By Rabid Cow

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Aug. 13 (AP)—The Florida Highway Patrol is hunting a vacationing tourist to warn him that the cow which bit him back home may be infected with rabies.

Indiana State Police at Putnamville, Ind., and the sheriff of Morgan County, Ind., asked the Florida patrol to put out a pickup order for Ray Vickery and warn him to report to the nearest hospital for a checkup.

Nine Communist Leaders Guilty Of Conspiracy

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13 (AP)—Nine Communists today were found guilty of conspiracy to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the United States government.

A jury of seven women and five men deliberated 7 hours and 58 minutes before returning a verdict against the defendants who did not deny party membership but claimed their activities were not illegal.

The verdict ended the longest trial in the eastern Pennsylvania U.S. District Court history — 47 days of testimony and argument.

Judge J. Cullen Ganey deferred sentencing pending argument on a defense plea for a judgment of acquittal or a new trial. He set Aug. 23 for the hearing.

The nine Philadelphia area Red leaders face a maximum sentence of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine each for violation of the Smith Act. The conviction brings to 81 the national total of convictions under the Smith Act.

Judge Ganey continued the defendants in bail, $20,000 for Joseph Kuzma, and $10,000 each for the other eight, but ordered them not to leave the jurisdiction of the court without prior permission.

Specifically, the nine defendants were charged with "unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly organizing and helping to organize, as the Communist party of the United States of America, a society, group and assembly of persons who teach and advocate the overthrow of the United States by force and violence."

Other defendants were Robert Klonsky, 35; Sam Gobeloff, 44, also known as Joseph Roberts; Benjamin Weiss, 39; David Dubensky, 46, also known as David Davis; Thomas Nebried, 51; Irwin Katz, 35; Walter Lowenfels, 56; and Sherman Labovitz, 29, all of Philadelphia.

Navy To Release 45,000 Officers From Reserves

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP) — Forty-five thousand inactive officers are going to be dropped from the Navy's reserve rolls.

Announcing this today, Asst. Secretary of the Navy James H. Smith Jr., said the slash is part of an over-all tightening up program for the Naval Reserve.

All those pruned out of the program will be given honorable discharges, Smith told a news conference. He added the 45,000 includes "valuable friends of the Navy and veterans with fine service records."

Officers affected are those who have not been in reserve activities for the past three years or more. Letters of notification will start going out within a few days.

Enlisted reservists will not be affected, Smith said. The Navy has only about 400,000 of these now, and the Pentagon plans to ask Congress to approve an increase to 600,000 next year.

Smith said more inactive officers will be dropped later, after their records and their wishes with respect to further reserve service have been looked over.

Today's announcement followed a poll of reserve officers which the Navy started last year. More than 100,000 inactive reservists were sent questionnaires. Slightly more than half replied. Some 25,000 resigned their commissions, another 20,000 retired and about 7,000 resumed active participation in the reserve program.

Smith said the 45,000 to be dropped now are among those who failed to respond to the Navy's search for information.

The new slash does not include medical and dental officers, aviators, officers who served actively in the Korean War or to those with more than 18 years' satisfactory service.

Beall Offers Aid To Polish Woman

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP) — A Polish grandmother, ordered deported after 42 years in the United States, was offered help today by a Maryland senator.

Sen. Beall (R-Md) said he is offering a bill to permit Mrs. Matrona G. Karpuk, 61, to remain in this country, and will offer it again at the next session if necessary.

Beall said in a statement it is very unlikely the bill can be acted on at this session.

Mrs. Karpuk, who lives in Baltimore, has appealed the order which would send her back behind the Iron Curtain.

The Board of Immigration Appeals probably will not hear the case until the fall, Beall said.

"I plan to notify the attorney general and the commissioner of the immigration and naturalization service that the bill will be reintroduced at the next session of Congress in the event that is necessary," Beall said.

Mrs. Karpuk and her family recently visited the senator to plead for help.

Beall recalled that after that visit he wrote the attorney general to request a review of the entire case.

Maryland Felon Gets Four Months For Prison Escape

HAGERSTOWN, Aug. 13 (AP) — Four more months in prison was the penalty imposed today on Robert Wilson for nine years of freedom.

Wilson, who is 50 and comes from Centreville, Md., also has five more years to go on a 16-year prison sentence he received in 1934 for second degree murder.

He escaped on May 22, 1945, from the Reformatory for Males at nearby Breathedsville.

He was picked up a month ago in Alabama on a minor offense and the routine checks made by police at that time revealed he was a fugitive from Maryland.

Wilson came before Chief Judge Joseph D. Mish in Washington County Circuit Court today on a charge of escaping prison. Judge Mish sentenced him to serve four months in the House of Correction, the sentence to begin when he finishes serving the term for murder.

Five Escaped Convicts Caught

PUTNAM, Conn., Aug. 13 (AP) — Five dangerous convicts who fled the Norfolk, Mass., prison colony last night were recaptured today in a swift-moving manhunt that spanned the Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut lines.

Two hostages taken by the escapees—one a prison colony guard and the other a Pawtucket, R.I., civilian—were rescued unharmed.

Richard Lavoie, 40, of Woonsocket, R.I., limping with a broken foot, was recaptured in a swamp in Pawtucket's west end.

The others were retaken after their car, stolen in Pawtucket, crashed into a tree in Putnam.

Russell Halliday, 26, of Cambridge, Mass., ringleader of the escape, and James L. Schworm, 31, of Malden, Mass., were taken by Connecticut state police at the crash scene.

Later, William J. Couture, 40, of Taunton, Mass., and Martin F. Feeney, 38, of Boston were flushed from nearby woods.

French Cabinet Members Resign

PARIS, Aug. 13 (AP)—Three members of Premier Pierre Mendes-France's Cabinet, all followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, resigned tonight in protest against his plan for the European Defense Community.

The three who resigned are Gen. Pierre Koenig, defense minister; Jacques Chaban Delmas, minister of public works, and Maurice Lemaire, minister of reconstruction.

Trio Robs Air Force Bank Of $124,638, One Captured

CAMP SPRINGS, Md., Aug. 13 (AP)—Three gunmen stripped the Andrews Air Force Base bank of an estimated $124,638 today. The FBI reported one was nabbed within 15 minutes. Two other men were picked up for questioning but later were released.

A smartly dressed trio, all Negroes, forced four bank employes and four customers into a vault, slugging one airman with a pistol butt, before speeding away from the one-story concrete building with the loot.

Minutes later a Prince Georges County (Md.) detective, who did not know of the robbery, arrested on a speeding charge a man who, the FBI said, later was identified by five persons in the privately owned bank as one of the robbers.

Two other Negroes were in the stopped car. They sped off while the driver was being booked at a police station.

Maryland State Police later picked up two men at the junction of U.S. 50 and U.S. 301, between Washington and Annapolis, and returned them to Andrews Field to be viewed by robbery witnesses. They were later released.

None of the three men was named and there was no indication any of the $124,638 was recovered. The first man taken into custody reportedly is from New York City.

The stickup—which netted one of the biggest hauls in Washington area crime records—occurred just after the air base bank opened at 9 a.m. (EDT) and officials said the gunmen presumably knew $80,000 in cash had just been received at the bank.

The Andrews bank is a branch of the First National Bank of Southern Maryland, at nearby Upper Marlboro. Andrews field is eight miles southeast of Washington. B. B. Sasscer, assistant manager of the parent bank, said the Andrews branch is a "very active" one, keeping large amounts of cash for military and civilian personnel on the 4,000-acre base.

The bank is across the road from the base operations headquarters. It is not protected by armed guards during the day.

Today's robbery was the third at a military installation in this area in the past 18 months. The nearby Ft. Meade Bank was robbed of $20,000 March 20, 1953, and again of $40,000 the following Dec. 22.

The first of the three arrested men was taken into custody by Sgt. Charles L. Perrygo, who said the man's car passed him near Upper Marlboro going 70 or 80 miles an hour.

Man Confesses Slaying 22 Years Ago In Carolina

BALTIMORE, Aug. 13 (AP)—Police were checking today on the story of 41-year-old Harford S. Smith who confessed to killing a man in Greensboro, N.C., 22 years ago.

The Baltimore laborer called Detective Sgt. Francis Murphy last night and told Murphy he wanted to "get something off my mind."

Smith met Murphy and another officer and told them:

"Back in 1932, in Greensboro, when I was a young boy, I and two other men went into a grocery store to hold it up. During the holdup, a customer pulled a pistol. I shot him. He died from the bullet wound. I'd like to go back and square up accounts."

Smith picked Murphy to tell his story to because he said the officer had always treated him fairly. Murphy has arrested Smith three times previously for forgery.

Smith said the other two men in the holdup were caught and sentenced to 15 years in prison.

Greensboro police were notified and asked to check on Smith's story.

Negro Gets Life For Killing Wife

BALTIMORE, Aug. 13 (AP)—Johnnie Erving, 27, was sentenced to life in prison today for shooting his wife to death while free on bond on a charge of assaulting her.

Judge James K. Cullen sentenced the young Negro man for the fatal shooting last Feb. 15. Erving's wife, Eleanor, was 17-years-old when she died.

Oh, Unlucky Day

STRASBOURG, France, Aug. 13 (AP)—It was an unlucky Friday the 13th for wine-loving citizens of Strasbourg. A loaded tank car was derailed in the station and spilled 3,200 gallons of red wine on the tracks before anyone could so much as bring a glass.

Baltimore Seeks Bus Fare Reduction

BALTIMORE, Aug. 13 (AP)—Baltimore went to court today in an effort to get a cut in transit fares.

The Public Service Commission recently granted the Baltimore Transit Co. boosts which raised the basic fare a penny, to 18 cents, and zone and children's fares two cents, lifting them to a dime.

The city and the People's Counsel had formally requested the PSC to cut back the fares, contending service was inadequate. The commission refused saying it had considered all evidence before granting the boosts.

Today, a suit was filed in Circuit Court in behalf of the Mayor and City Council and the People's Counsel and against the commission and the transit company.

Granted Wage Boost

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (AP) — An arbitration board today turned down a 22½-per cent wage increase sought by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers but granted the union a 5-cents-an-hour boost offered by the major railroads.

Five Escaped Convicts Caught

PUTNAM, Conn., Aug. 13 (AP) — Five dangerous convicts who fled the Norfolk, Mass., prison colony last night were recaptured today in a swift-moving manhunt that spanned the Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut lines.

Two hostages taken by the escapees—one a prison colony guard and the other a Pawtucket, R.I., civilian—were rescued unharmed.

Richard Lavoie, 40, of Woonsocket, R.I., limping with a broken foot, was recaptured in a swamp in Pawtucket's west end.

The others were retaken after their car, stolen in Pawtucket, crashed into a tree in Putnam.

Russell Halliday, 26, of Cambridge, Mass., ringleader of the escape, and James L. Schworm, 31, of Malden, Mass., were taken by Connecticut state police at the crash scene.

Later, William J. Couture, 40, of Taunton, Mass., and Martin F. Feeney, 38, of Boston were flushed from nearby woods.

French Cabinet Members Resign

PARIS, Aug. 13 (AP)—Three members of Premier Pierre Mendes-France's Cabinet, all followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, resigned tonight in protest against his plan for the European Defense Community.

The three who resigned are Gen. Pierre Koenig, defense minister; Jacques Chaban Delmas, minister of public works, and Maurice Lemaire, minister of reconstruction.

Trio Robs Air Force Bank Of $124,638, One Captured

CAMP SPRINGS, Md., Aug. 13 (AP)—Three gunmen stripped the Andrews Air Force Base bank of an estimated $124,638 today. The FBI reported one was nabbed within 15 minutes. Two other men were picked up for questioning but later were released.

A smartly dressed trio, all Negroes, forced four bank employes and four customers into a vault, slugging one airman with a pistol butt, before speeding away from the one-story concrete building with the loot.

Minutes later a Prince Georges County (Md.) detective, who did not know of the robbery, arrested on a speeding charge a man who, the FBI said, later was identified by five persons in the privately owned bank as one of the robbers.

Two other Negroes were in the stopped car. They sped off while the driver was being booked at a police station.

Maryland State Police later picked up two men at the junction of U.S. 50 and U.S. 301, between Washington and Annapolis, and returned them to Andrews Field to be viewed by robbery witnesses. They were later released.

None of the three men was named and there was no indication any of the $124,638 was recovered. The first man taken into custody reportedly is from New York City.

The stickup—which netted one of the biggest hauls in Washington area crime records—occurred just after the air base bank opened at 9 a.m. (EDT) and officials said the gunmen presumably knew $80,000 in cash had just been received at the bank.

The Andrews bank is a branch of the First National Bank of Southern Maryland, at nearby Upper Marlboro. Andrews field is eight miles southeast of Washington. B. B. Sasscer, assistant manager of the parent bank, said the Andrews branch is a "very active" one, keeping large amounts of cash for military and civilian personnel on the 4,000-acre base.

The bank is across the road from the base operations headquarters. It is not protected by armed guards during the day.

Today's robbery was the third at a military installation in this area in the past 18 months. The nearby Ft. Meade Bank was robbed of $20,000 March 20, 1953, and again of $40,000 the following Dec. 22.

The first of the three arrested men was taken into custody by Sgt. Charles L. Perrygo, who said the man's car passed him near Upper Marlboro going 70 or 80 miles an hour.

Man Confesses Slaying 22 Years Ago In Carolina

BALTIMORE, Aug. 13 (AP)—Police were checking today on the story of 41-year-old Harford S. Smith who confessed to killing a man in Greensboro, N.C., 22 years ago.

The Baltimore laborer called Detective Sgt. Francis Murphy last night and told Murphy he wanted to "get something off my mind."

Smith met Murphy and another officer and told them:

"Back in 1932, in Greensboro, when I was a young boy, I and two other men went into a grocery store to hold it up. During the holdup, a customer pulled a pistol. I shot him. He died from the bullet wound. I'd like to go back and square up accounts."

Smith picked Murphy to tell his story to because he said the officer had always treated him fairly. Murphy has arrested Smith three times previously for forgery.

Smith said the other two men in the holdup were caught and sentenced to 15 years in prison.

Greensboro police were notified and asked to check on Smith's story.

Negro Gets Life For Killing Wife

BALTIMORE, Aug. 13 (AP)—Johnnie Erving, 27, was sentenced to life in prison today for shooting his wife to death while free on bond on a charge of assaulting her.

Judge James K. Cullen sentenced the young Negro man for the fatal shooting last Feb. 15. Erving's wife, Eleanor, was 17-years-old when she died.

Oh, Unlucky Day

STRASBOURG, France, Aug. 13 (AP)—It was an unlucky Friday the 13th for wine-loving citizens of Strasbourg. A loaded tank car was derailed in the station and spilled 3,200 gallons of red wine on the tracks before anyone could so much as bring a glass.

Baltimore Seeks Bus Fare Reduction

BALTIMORE, Aug. 13 (AP)—Baltimore went to court today in an effort to get a cut in transit fares.

The Public Service Commission recently granted the Baltimore Transit Co. boosts which raised the basic fare a penny, to 18 cents, and zone and children's fares two cents, lifting them to a dime.

The city and the People's Counsel had formally requested the PSC to cut back the fares, contending service was inadequate. The commission refused saying it had considered all evidence before granting the boosts.

Today, a suit was filed in Circuit Court in behalf of the Mayor and City Council and the People's Counsel and against the commission and the transit company.

Granted Wage Boost

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (AP) — An arbitration board today turned down a 22½-per cent wage increase sought by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers but granted the union a 5-cents-an-hour boost offered by the major railroads.

Fall suits are figure-conscious, so give thought now to putting yourself in suite shape!

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

The beginning of a new season always puts new excitement in fashion. A man senses this when his wife comes home with a smart-looking suit. I feel the excitement in the air even more sharply, because I often accompany my styling consultant to fashion shows.

The fall suits we have seen point to a more supple silhouette, a more "at ease" look. Don't think, however, that the fitted suit is absent; some suits actually hug the figure with what fashion commentators term the "corselet fit." You can imagine how figure-perfect one must be to wear this particular line

You must really smooth the curves of your figure to wear any suit well. Whether you choose one of the new semi-fitted styles with a big collar, the slim suit with bloused top, or even the suit with box jacket and slightly flaring skirt, there's no concealing the figure beneath.

Problem Hips?

A "problem point" with many women contemplating a suit purchase is the hipline, judging from the volume of mail that brings questions on hip control. I asked my physical education department to work out some exercises that will help to solve this figure problem and put you in suit shape.

1. Sit on the floor with both hands resting on the floor close beside your right hip. Let your hands and right hip support all your weight. Stretch both legs as far to your left side as you can. Now vigorously lift your legs and swing them around in an arc in front of you until they are stretched out to your extreme right side. As your legs leave the floor, transfer hands to the left side.

Get as much rhythm into the exercise as you can. The faster and harder you do it, the easier it is and the quicker the results. Start with five on each side and work up to 25 as quickly as possible.

2. Lie prone, head resting on your folded arms, and slowly lift the right leg straight up from the hip. Keep your leg straight and heel extended. Use the muscles of your lower back to keep from straining. Lower your right leg, then raise the left. Rest. Now raise both legs together. Rest, then repeat the sequence 20 times.

Fashion Finds

If your frame is large and your hips are broad, no amount of exercise will narrow the hipline. You must make careful choice of skirts to minimize girth. Boxy jackets, no matter what their length, are not good, for they give the illusion of width. Top interest, perhaps a large sailor collar, is a balancing factor. Or choose a skirt with buttons marching decoratively or functionally, down the front — part of the way or all the way from jacket to hemline.

"WHAT'S YOUR LINE?" — Horizontal, vertical and diagonal lines make a world of difference in what clothing will do for (or to) your figure! This "P.S." gives you complete information on handling lines to your own best advantage. Write to Secrets of Charm in care of this newspaper, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed return envelope for a copy of WHAT'S YOUR LINE?

Monday—Lines and wrinkles.

You must really smooth the curves of your figure to wear any suit well. Whether you choose one of the new semi-fitted styles with a big collar, the slim suit with bloused top, or even the suit with box jacket and slightly flaring skirt, there's no concealing the figure beneath.

Problem Hips?

A "problem point" with many women contemplating a suit purchase is the hipline, judging from the volume of mail that brings questions on hip control. I asked my physical education department to work out some exercises that will help to solve this figure problem and put you in suit shape.

1. Sit on the floor with both hands resting on the floor close beside your right hip. Let your hands and right hip support all your weight. Stretch both legs as far to your left side as you can. Now vigorously lift your legs and swing them around in an arc in front of you until they are stretched out to your extreme right side. As your legs leave the floor, transfer hands to the left side.

Get as much rhythm into the exercise as you can. The faster and harder you do it, the easier it is and the quicker the results. Start with five on each side and work up to 25 as quickly as possible.

2. Lie prone, head resting on your folded arms, and slowly lift the right leg straight up from the hip. Keep your leg straight and heel extended. Use the muscles of your lower back to keep from straining. Lower your right leg, then raise the left. Rest. Now raise both legs together. Rest, then repeat the sequence 20 times.

Fashion Finds

If your frame is large and your hips are broad, no amount of exercise will narrow the hipline. You must make careful choice of skirts to minimize girth. Boxy jackets, no matter what their length, are not good, for they give the illusion of width. Top interest, perhaps a large sailor collar, is a balancing factor. Or choose a skirt with buttons marching decoratively or functionally, down the front — part of the way or all the way from jacket to hemline.

"WHAT'S YOUR LINE?" — Horizontal, vertical and diagonal lines make a world of difference in what clothing will do for (or to) your figure! This "P.S." gives you complete information on handling lines to your own best advantage. THE GREATEST WEAPON AGAINST COMMUNISM

A victim of an Iron Curtain Country escaped and found refuge in the United States.

In America he worked where he liked. He went to and from town, or crossed state lines as he wished. Never was he stopped and asked for "papers." Never were his belongings searched or confiscated. Never, when he went to bed at night, was he haunted by the fear of being torn ruthlessly from home and loved ones to be sent away forever.

Yet these things are happening right now in his native country.

"Abroad, there is terror in many hearts," said this refugee, "that you Americans cannot understand because you have never experienced it . . . and God forbid you ever shall.

"This above all you must remember: The greatest weapon you have against Communism is your Bible and your Religion."

In other words, American Citizen, "Go to the church of your choice this Sunday—and every Sunday. Keep Christianity thriving. It's your mightiest weapon against the dark devices of Communism."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE GREATEST WEAPON AGAINST COMMUNISM

A victim of an Iron Curtain Country escaped and found refuge in the United States.

In America he worked where he liked. He went to and from town, or crossed state lines as he wished. Never was he stopped and asked for "papers." Never were his belongings searched or confiscated. Never, when he went to bed at night, was he haunted by the fear of being torn ruthlessly from home and loved ones to be sent away forever.

Yet these things are happening right now in his native country.

"Abroad, there is terror in many hearts," said this refugee, "that you Americans cannot understand because you have never experienced it . . . and God forbid you ever shall.

"This above all you must remember: The greatest weapon you have against Communism is your Bible and your Religion."

In other words, American Citizen, "Go to the church of your choice this Sunday—and every Sunday. Keep Christianity thriving. It's your mightiest weapon against the dark devices of Communism."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mennonite Group Finishes Conference At Grantsville

Thirteen hundred persons attended the 44th annual meeting of the Conservative Amish Mennonite Conference that closed yesterday at the Maple Glen Meetinghouse, one mile north of Grantsville.

Nine hundred of the members and delegates were from out-of-state from as far north as upstate New York, as far west as Kansas, as far south of Florida and as far east as Delaware.

The conference ended its four-day program with the closing service late yesterday under a huge tent acquired for the occasion.

Most all of the 900 visitors have been housed in homes of the members of the Casselman River Congregation, the host congregation for the conference.

1,300 Fed In Half-Hour

Bishop Ivan J. Miller, of the Casselman River Congregation, said only a few had to stay in hotels or motels in the area.

The Casselman River group of 265 adult members had the gigantic task of feeding 1,300 people twice daily at the outdoor gathering.

Bishop Miller said breakfast was eaten in the homes, and the noon and evening meals at the conference grounds.

The efficient Casselman River Congregation was successful in feeding all of the 1,300 in less than 30 minutes, Bishop Miller said.

Miller Gets High Post

Bishop Miller was elected to a high position in the national conference. He was made a five-year member of the executive board.

The new moderator, or head of the conference, is Emmanuel Peachey, of Belleville, Pa. Assistant moderator is Jerry Miller of Hartville, Ohio.

Other officers chosen were: Earl Maust of Pigeon, Mich., five-year member on the mission board; Mark Swartzentruber of Greenwood, Del., head of the fellowship meeting committee.

David Showalter of Gay's Creek, Ky., named to the Winter Bible School Board; Erie Renno, of Belleville, Pa., moderator of the Christian Workers Conference of the sect, Melville Masziger, Wilmington, Del., assistant moderator of the Christian Workers group.

Frank Dutcher, of Bowling's Creek, Ky., elected third member of the Christian Workers Conference Committee.

Andrew Gingerich, of Adam's, N. Y., was appointed to the national Mennonite Central Committee, which takes charge of all Mennonite foreign relief work.

Follow Middle Course

Bishop Miller explained that the Conservative Amish Mennonites follow a middle course between the Amish and the Mennonite sects. For the most part, they are rural people engaged primarily in agriculture.

Tuesday, separate ministers, sisters, and young peoples meetings were held; Wednesday, the public conference session, yesterday, mission program, and today, Christian Workers Conference.

The moderator of yesterday's program was Richard Bender, Williamsville, N. Y., and the theme was "In the Service of Christ."

While the annual convention has ended, Andrew Jantzi of Alden, N. Y., will conduct a series of revival services in the big tent erected on the grounds.

They will start Sunday and continue each evening for two weeks at 7:30 p. m. Bishop Miller said the public is welcome to participate.

11 Girls Enter County Farm Queen Contest

The first rehearsal for the contestants in the Allegany County Farm Queen contest was held yesterday in the City Hall auditorium under the supervision of Miss Ruth Clauson, president of the Associated Women of the County Farm Bureau.

There are 11 girls entered, Miss Clauson said, with Monday being the deadline for those wishing to compete. The contest, she said, is open to unmarried girls from 16 to 18 years of age who are either members of 4-H clubs or who have had home economics training.

Contestants Listed

The contestants include Agnes Carder, Oldtown; Ramona Mauzy, Flintstone; Vera Isner, Williams Road; Jacqueline Apple, Town Creek; Dessie Mae Buser, Flintstone; Mary Robinette, Twiggtown; Betty Hill, Christie Road; Leah Robinette, Oldtown; Loretta Wotring, Christie Road; Natalie Mann, Little Orleans, and Eleanor Smith, Polish Mountain.

Additional qualifications, Miss Clauson stated, include that the entries must maintain a home on a farm of not less than three acres. She added that they may work in town or be attending college.

The county winner will be selected Saturday evening, August 21, at a contest which will be a feature of the annual county farmer's picnic, at the Union Grove camp grounds.

Three Speakers Named

Speakers at the farmer's picnic will be Mrs. Atlee Armour, president of the Maryland Associated Women; Sol Hoke, director of young people's activities of the State Farm Bureau, and John Fulton Lewis, publicity director of the State Farm Bureau.

The winner of the queen contest has been invited to appear at the Cumberland Fair, Wednesday, August 25, and, in addition, will receive a trip to the State Fair at Timonium where she will compete with representatives from the 23 other counties for the state title.

The winner will be accompanied to Timonium by a chaperon and Miss Clauson, and all will be guests at a luncheon there Saturday, August 28. The state contest will follow the luncheon, Miss Clauson said.

Girls interested in home, community and church activities are encouraged to join the contest. Simple cotton costumes are preferred. Many girls make their own dresses, according to Miss Clauson.

The same score cards are used in all counties in the state, judging scores being based on general appearance, costume, poise, posture, carriage, personality and manners. Selection of each county's farm queen is made by three locally selected judges who are informed about the score cards preceding the contest.

Allegany county girls eligible to enter the contest are invited to apply to Miss Clauson either by mail or telephone for application cards which will be mailed to them promptly. Miss Clauson's address is Hazen Road, and the telephone is 460-J-1.

Court Seeks FBI Report On Smith

Trial Magistrate Donald W. Mason yesterday deferred sentencing a Washington man who had pleaded guilty to the theft of a coffeemaker from a Baltimore Street store.

The man, John Edgar Smith, 44, was remanded to the Allegany county jail pending the arrival of a report from the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Court attaches said Smith had been out under $500 bond pending the next session of Prince Georges County Circuit Court. He told Magistrate Mason that he was an "innocent bystander" in that case, which also involved a theft charge.

The local count was placed by County Investigator Edwin R. Lilya and City Detective James E. Van.

Smith was arrested Thursday afternoon by Officer J. Henry Stitcher on a description furnished by Lt. Van. Van said he had started looking for Smith when he heard Smith was selling shirts for a dollar apiece. Smith later admitted having "lifted" the shirts from local haberdasheries, Van said.

Some 80 per cent of United States homes are made of wood.

Would A Million Be Enough, Mr. Truman?

Harry Truman says Congress can be wrested from Republican control by the simple process of spending a million dollars. He says the Democratic Party brass which has been planning for a $475,000 Congressional campaign fund are pikers. Victory demands that $1,000,000 be spent, Harry says. And the outcome of the 1956 presidential election may depend on this year's Congressional outcome, he intimates.

Truman, never a man to hold back on spending, gave party leaders a pep talk when they called on him in Missouri. But some of them read an implied admission into his advice that made them feel uneasy. If a huge national campaign fund is needed to insure victory in Congressional districts, the fight may be hopeless.

A $1,000,000 Congressional campaign fund on a national level, in an off-year election, may be difficult for the minority party to raise. Many of the big contributors of the past kicked in merely because the party was in power, and they wanted favors. Adlai Stevenson, the party's 1952 standard bearer, who was in the delegation that called on Truman, says he's still working to pay off the party's existing debts.

There has always been a question to what extent national Congressional campaign committees influence elections in Congressional districts, which to a large extent are decided by local considerations and personalities. A campaign fund of $1,000,000 sounds impressive, but it is merely $2,000 for each Congressional candidate, although the bulk of the money usually backs candidates who are considered to have the best chance to score an upset.

The Purge

Franklin D. Roosevelt tried to purge his party of Senators and Representatives and, with one exception, he failed. Roosevelt was at the height of his popularity, pretty much the master of his party and probably the ablest political operator ever to have sat in the White House. But he failed when he applied the purge method to American politics.

Now President Eisenhower has undertaken a process of endorsement which gives the impression of being a purge by indirection. The President poses with a candidate in the 1954 campaign before a photographer. The candidate is then free to exhibit the photograph as a tacit endorsement of himself by President Eisenhower. It is then to be assumed that those who are not so photographed are not endorsed by the President. If those not in a joint photograph are elected and those who are so photographed are defeated, what is the political status of the President?

Whoever evolved this formula must be a novice in politics. Senators and Representatives are elected on a basis of local interests. They are rarely, if ever, chosen in any state on a broad national program. The endorsement by President Eisenhower may be an advantage in some places; in others, such an endorsement can mean very little. For instance, in a state where the Farmers Union prevails politically, an endorsement by President Eisenhower can be of no greater value than an endorsement by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. Emanuel Celler, to cite another example, will not be defeated in his particular district in Brooklyn even if his opponent is photographed with President Eisenhower, whether such a defeat is justified or not. It will be interesting to see if such a photograph defeats the Veep, Alben Barkley, in Kentucky, or if it elects Clifford Case in New Jersey. In each of these situations, local conditions and personal equations will determine the results.

The purge is dangerous because it adds another element to the division within the Republican Party. The split started in the 1952 convention between the Taft and Dewey supporters. Eisenhower was not a factor in it, as Senator Robert A. Taft established while he was alive. He joined forces with Eisenhower and called upon his personal followers to pursue the same course. Taft spent much of his time and his waning energy to establish unity within the Republican Party.

I was present at a small dinner when Taft appealed to six of his personal friends to support Eisenhower and his logic was irrefutable. Those who had confidence in his judgment agreed to abide by his decision. As long as Taft lived, wounds were being healed; when he died, the Taft element lost contact with the White House. They were offended by the screening process insisted upon by White House and Republican National Committee officials who had been their opponents at the convention and whom they regarded as minions of Tom Dewey whom they dislike and distrust.

None of this had anything to do with Joe McCarthy. As a matter of fact, McCarthy never belonged to the Taft element in the Party. In 1948, he had been a Stassen manager; in 1952, he was closer to the Eisenhower than the Taft group. While Taft and McCarthy were very friendly, they had never become close political associates.

Nevertheless, as the quarrel between the White House and McCarthy developed, the Taft element in the Party tended to support McCarthy. Again it was not so much opposition to Eisenhower as to the so-called Dewey Team in Washington. The testimony at the McCarthy-Stevens hearing established beyond doubt that the principal anti-McCarthy element within the Republican Party were those most closely associated with Dewey, namely Herbert Brownell, Jr., William Rogers, Sherman Adams, Henry Cabot Lodge, Max Rabb, James Hagerty. Joe Welch, the humble lawyer from Boston, was recommended by Tom Dewey.

No one has been able to do anything about this schism to date although many have tried, particularly the Vice President, Richard Nixon. While originally the quarrel arose largely over personalities, today it has become a question of control involving the relationships of the Executive and the Congress. To this must be added a contest over the control of the Republican Party, whether it is to be in the hands of those who for 20 years stood by the Republican Party or those who were associated with the Roosevelt and Truman Administrations.

White House Press Conferences May Injure GOP

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Presidential press conferences are getting no better—in fact, they are doing increased harm not only to the President and the Republican Party but also to the influence abroad of the foreign policies of the United States.

Unfortunately much of the damage is done because sometimes the President isn't told the full story behind the questions fired at him.

Thus this week Mr. Eisenhower was asked about recurrent suggestions that the United States sever diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia, and he was told that the most recent one came from General Mark Clark. The fact was that the general was a witness before the Senate Rules committee on other subjects, and Senator Jenner of Indiana, chairman, read to him a resolution, introduced by himself and Senator McCarran of Nevada, which would simply express the sense of the Senate that it would be desirable for the United States to sever diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia and the satellite governments. General Clark was asked what he thought about it, and he replied briefly that, if he were a member of the Senate, he would vote for it.

Now Mr. Eisenhower at his press conference was not told that fact nor was he told that a committee of nine members of the House of Representatives, both Republicans and Democrats, had just filed a report unanimously recommending that the President convene an international conference to seek agreement with our allies on the severance of all diplomatic relations and the termination of all trade with the Communist countries. This committee has been taking testimony in Europe and elsewhere for several months from persons of promience who have escaped from the Communist regime and who are in a position to tell Americans how influential such a policy would be in encouraging the peoples behind the Iron Curtain.

But Mr. Eisenhower, without going into the merits of this very difficult and complicated question, rejected offhand any consideration of it. He said that if anyone would sit down and study the conflicting considerations objectively and not merely shoot from the hip on such questions, they would arrive at a similar conclusion.

But how do the nine members of the House committee who have spent many months on this problef feel? Have they been shooting from the hip, or has the President himself been doing that very thing because he has not been properly briefed on how the manifestation by him of a closed mind on this subject can bring discouragement to the enslaved peoples? Why did he have to discuss the question at all?

In domestic affairs, the President also stumbled along at his press conference, leaving in its wake ambiguities that cannot possibly do his party any good. He was asked whether, in view of his statement in the past that he felt an obligation to support all nominees of the Republican Party in the Congressional elections, he would give heed to a protest from Republicans in New Jersey who want the regular party nominee, Clifford Case, to withdraw from the race. Mr. Eisenhower made a confusing answer. He said that generalizations he had made in the past do not stand up. This might permit the inference that he was backing away from his previous position. Then he added that he stood behind the part nominee, Mr. Case.

As a result of his press conference information, The New York Times had a headline the next day on its front page: "President To Back Own Candidates, Ignoring Factions." Beneath it was an article saying the President "made it clear that the non-Eisenhower and anti-Eisenhower Republicans could have no assurance in each and every case of White House assistance."

It isn't clear at all whether the President is backing away from support of all nominees of the Republican Party and means to be choosy about those who don't entirely support his program, thus preferring to let some Democratic nominees win. This could conceivably mean a Democratic Congress if the voting is close.

What seems worst of all at the press conference was the revelation that the President and his principal assistant, former Governor Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, are not working as closely together as might be imagined. The President was asked about the statement by Mr. Adams on a television program implying that the President might not run again in 1956. Mr. Eisenhower replied that he didn't know why any member of his staff was saying these things, that Governor Adams had never spoken about it to him nor had anyone else on his staff. He did say they had a right to speculate, but that whatever facts Mr. Adams had he wished he would give them to the President, for he (Mr. Eisenhower) had none.

If this were the first time Mr. Adams had discussed the subject publicly, it might be surprising, but he has made previous speeches on that subject. One would think by this time the President and his assistant would have had a heart-to-heart talk about the danger of raising doubts inside the Republican Party as to whether it is to have the benefit of Mr. Eisenhower's leadership in a second term. It is conceded that politically—and especially in Congress—any doubt about running for a second term materially weakens an incumbent President. Caution at press conferences — or, perhaps better, briefings for the President ahead of time—might spare the Republican Party a lot of headaches.

Leukemia Has No Known Cure, But Remedies Help

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Leukemia, mistakenly called cancer of the blood, has none of the characteristics of cancer. It does not spread to other organs nor does microscopic study reveal the usual evidence of malignancy. It is a condition in which more white corpuscles are produced than the body needs.

In a normal person, the white blood count rarely exceeds 10,000 whereas in leukemia, the reading may be as high as 500,000. The white cells become so numerous the blood assumes a milky color which is why the disease is called leukemia, a word meaning white blood.

The cause is not known. There is an acute and a chronic form and the manifestations are different. The acute variety is most common in children and runs a shorter course than the milder, or chronic type which favors adults and is more prevalent.

Most victims of chronic leukemia complain of weakness and there is enlargement of the lymph glands in the neck armpits and groins. Fever and bleeding tendencies may be present Diagnosis is made by studying the blood and bone marrow.

There appears to be a relationship between exposure to X-ray and the development of the disease. Studies have revealed that among X-ray specialists, the incidence is nine times as high as in physicians who do not confine their work to this branch of medicine. This complication would not be applicable to the average citizen unless an atomic bomb should strike. Atomic rays have the same effect as X-rays, judging from studies made on survivors of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki blasts.

Heredity also plays a role as blood relatives of the victim stand a 17 times greater chance of acquiring the disease than do those in the general population. These factors will be of little help to the reader who wants to know how to avoid leukemia, living in the country where the chances of being bombed by the new weapons are minimal, and becoming a farmer rather than an X-ray specialist.

Some day a cure will be found. The newer remedies come close. They relieve pain, prolong life, and are tremendous morale builders. Most of these products inhibit the production of white blood cells by depressing the function of the blood forming organs.

Triethylene melamine (TEM) is one of the most promising of the newer adjuncts. Other treatments include X-ray (strange as it may seem), nitrogen mustard, folic acid antagonists, ACTH, cortisone, and radioactive phosphorus. In addition, many sufferers require transfusions, antibiotics, iron, liver, or vitamin B12.

SUN THROUGH PANE

F. C. writes: Does a person get any benefit from the sun coming through a window pane?

REPLY

Ordinary window glass filters out ultraviolet but not the infrared rays. This means that a person would not become sunburned or tanned by sitting at a closed window with the sun shining through but he would receive the heat rays. According to Dr. Ben Boynton, quartz is the exception. It admits ultraviolet rays and in the past was used in a few institutions for this purpose.

McCarran Nags Air Force For German Construction Of U. S. Bases In Spain

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — It's amazing what one Senator can and will do to help his own friends regarding the construction of U. S. air bases abroad.

For months, Nevada's silver-haired Pat McCarran has been heckling the State and Defense Departments in order to get contracts for a German combine which, in turn, has promised to buy its heavy equipment from one of his Nevada friends. He has cross-examined U. S. officials behind closed doors, called Spanish Cabinet members over the trans-Atlantic phone—all in order to cut the Germans in on the construction of U. S. bases.

He has also used his seniority on the Senate Appropriations Committee to call repeated meetings and badger busy officials, taking care to keep the doors closed and the press barred.

This column, however, has reported what went on after each meeting, and here is a report on the last session.

This time, McCarran charged that though Spain didn't object to German contractors, the United States nevertheless was excluding them. Angrily he accused U. S. officials of favoring American firms over his German friends for the subcontract work, though later he denied this.

At one point, he exploded at Undersecretary of the Air Force James Douglas, charging him with inconsistency.

"Where do you get your idea of consistency?" stormed the Nevadan. "They say consistency is a jewel."

"If I am right . . ." Douglas started to reply.

"How can you be right?" McCarran cut him off.

"It is my recollection that . . ." Douglas began again.

"I don't want your recollection! Never mind your recollection!" bellowed McCarran

"I take it," bristled Douglas, still trying to get a word in, "The Senator objects to the possibility of American firms being associated . . ."

"That is not true, and there is not anything in there to justify that inference," the Nevada Senator almost screamed, though he had previously complained that American firms were getting first crack at the subcontracts ahead of German firms.

McCarran Interrupts

"Now you have engaged in about as much double-talk as I have heard in a short time," he snapped.

"I am sorry the Senator feels that way. It is not intended as double-talk," replied the Air Force official.

"There is not anyone here who can give us information," McCarran added sourly. "I think some day or another we will get the information from some source, but up to date there has been none."

"I think I have to say in reply that we had rather full hearings extending, according to my recollection, over three-and-a-half days," Douglas reminded the Senator.

"I am going to say, Mr. Chairman, and say it for the record," threatened McCarran, "that I am going to oppose any appropriation for this work until the matter has been explained to this committee as to what is being done and who is doing it."

Who Leaked To Pearson?

At one point, McCarran turned and demanded: "Was it you who gave this to Drew Pearson? Was this you who gave the hearings to Drew Pearson?"

"No, sir," denied Douglas.

"Who did out of your Department?" the Navadan kept at him.

"I have no idea," shrugged Douglas.

"You heard him on television, did you not?" demanded McCarran.

"No, I did not," replied the Air Force Undersecretary, "and I would assert in confidence it did not come out of the Air Force."

"It came from some Department," persisted McCarran.

"I have no idea where he got anything on this," reiterated Douglas emphatically.

NOTE TO McCARRAN — The previous hearings did not come from the Air Force. Now guess where this one came from.

Green Stuff For Green

Saul Haas, the Seattle radio-TV Mogul, who has made and unmade Senators in the Northwest, was in the Senate Restaurant while the solons were grabbing a quick bite to eat during night sessions. At one table Saul spied Senator Stuart Symington of Missouri and Senator Theodore Francis Green, much-loved 87-year-old Elder Statesman from Rhode Island.

"Stu," said Haas, leaning over Symington, "We've got to raise some money for Senator Green's re-election. We've got to have him back in the Senate, and I'm going to raise some money for him.

"I've got a hundred dollars right here that I'm going to contribute," continued Haas, and he pulled a hundred-dollar bill out of his pocket. "How about your putting up a hundred dollars too?"

Senator Green has been in the Senate ever since many people in Rhode Island can remember, and being young in physique though old in years, none of his colleagues is much worried about his re-election. Furthermore, Green is one of the Millionaire Senators. So Symington did not rush to follow Haas's suggestion. However, Saul was persistent.

"Come on, Stu," urged Haas. "I'm putting up $100. How about your putting up $100 too to help re-elect Senator Green. We've got to have him back in the Senate."

So while Senator Green looked on a bit embarrassed, Symington dug down into his pocket, counted out ten $10 bills, and gave them to the volunteer treasurer for Senator Green.

Hass thanked him, talked a bit more, then instead of giving the money to Senator Green, went off showing other Senators the two hundred dollars.

"First Class passengers keep your seats!
"Second Class passengers get out and walk!
"Third Class passengers get out and push!"

Such was the weird announcement of the operator of an old-fashioned motorbus that was trying to make a steep grade.

Nowadays travel has become revolutionized. Hills are graded down, roads are widened, curves are straightened out, mountains are tunneled through, rivers and chasms are bridged over.

Highways costing a million dollars a mile are stretching across the continent to care for the rapidly increasing truck and automobile traffic.

One can go coach or Pullman in ventilated air-conditioned cars with tip-happy plush comfort and faultless dining car cuisine.

If one travels by plane he is never ordered to "get out and push."

Whatever makes living more convenient and livable becomes a necessity. A woman had all her teeth out and a Frigidaire moved in.

We have it on high authority that mountains can be moved by faith. A wise man said, "I believe it because it is impossible." Impossibles only take more time.

The Panama Canal was built in spite of almost insuperable obstacles. Faith did it.

Five railroads and three tunnels honeycomb the Alps since Napoleon said, "There shall be no Alps."

Rome was built on seven hills. It was founded in 753 B.C. by Romulus, and named after him. It was the spanning of those seven hills with bridges and tunnels that made Rome the greatest city in the antique world.

Our Queen City, with its arteries of commerce proliferating over hills and valleys in the Tri-State area, could be a small replica of that ancient capital which was "not built in a day."

The Natural Bridge in Virginia, with its 90-foot span and its 215-foot height, is one of America's natural wonders.

Nature has not dealt so generously with our community, but we do have the butments for a natural bridge and the raw materials for its construction. All we need is the brains and the brawn to put them together. Then we shall have another American city of great distinction.

A young suitor asked the father of the girl for the hand of his daughter in marriage.

Said the father, "I have five daughters and two sons, and don't feel like taking on another to support."

"I didn't mean to come and live with you. I only want to take her from you to live with me," replied the ardent youth.

"In that case it is O. K., but you gave me a terrible shock," said the yielding father.

The sheer proposition for the city to go in debt to the tune of $10 to $12 million dollars for a bridge seems foolish. But when the state agrees to pay nearly all the bill, it becomes a horse of another color.

The Mayor and City Council have shown Scotch canniness in buying a bridge for practically a song, which will mean the uniting of the more or less isolated sections of our city into one unit of population, as well as furthering the long-standing plan of the national government in its road building program.

A man was put in jail and he sent for his lawyer. "What was the charge against you?" asked the counsel.

"Guilt by association," replied the accused.

"They can't put you in jail for that," said the lawyer.

"But they have," said the victim.

"Then I'll get you out by habeas corpus or mandamus proceedings."

One day an English lord got word at his London house that some remarkable ant-hills had been found at New Timber, and he decided to go down and investigate.

After a happy day among the ants he caught the afternoon train back to London.

Very soon he began to feel uneasy, as it appeared that some of the ants had invaded his trousers and were unpleasantly active.

He was alone in a first class carriage, there was no corridor, and it was a non-stop train to Victoria. He decided therefore to take off his trousers and shake them out of the window.

He was doing this successfully when the train plunged into a tunnel and the sudden gust of compressed air blew his ballooning trousers out of his hands and they were gone.

When the train reached Victoria he stood on his dignity with his shirttail flapping about his bare legs.

To the astonished porter he announced majestically, "I am Lord Buxton!" The porter immediately shouted to his pal, "Hey, Bill, come quick! 'Ere's a bloke gone balmy!"

The endorsement by President Eisenhower may be an advantage in some places; in others, such an endorsement can mean very little. For instance, in a state where the Farmers Union prevails politically, an endorsement by President Eisenhower can be of no greater value than an endorsement by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. Emanuel Celler, to cite another example, will not be defeated in his particular district in Brooklyn even if his opponent is photographed with President Eisenhower, whether such a defeat is justified or not. It will be interesting to see if such a photograph defeats the Veep, Alben Barkley, in Kentucky, or if it elects Clifford Case in New Jersey. In each of these situations, local conditions and personal equations will determine the results.

The purge is dangerous because it adds another element to the division within the Republican Party. The split started in the 1952 convention between the Taft and Dewey supporters. Eisenhower was not a factor in it, as Senator Robert A. Taft established while he was alive. He joined forces with Eisenhower and called upon his personal followers to pursue the same course. Taft spent much of his time and his waning energy to establish unity within the Republican Party.

I was present at a small dinner when Taft appealed to six of his personal friends to support Eisenhower and his logic was irrefutable. Those who had confidence in his judgment agreed to abide by his decision. As long as Taft lived, wounds were being healed; when he died, the Taft element lost contact with the White House. They were offended by the screening process insisted upon by White House and Republican National Committee officials who had been their opponents at the convention and whom they regarded as minions of Tom Dewey whom they dislike and distrust.

None of this had anything to do with Joe McCarthy. As a matter of fact, McCarthy never belonged to the Taft element in the Party. In 1948, he had been a Stassen manager; in 1952, he was closer to the Eisenhower than the Taft group. While Taft and McCarthy were very friendly, they had never become close political associates.

Nevertheless, as the quarrel between the White House and McCarthy developed, the Taft element in the Party tended to support McCarthy. Again it was not so much opposition to Eisenhower as to the so-called Dewey Team in Washington. The testimony at the McCarthy-Stevens hearing established beyond doubt that the principal anti-McCarthy element within the Republican Party were those most closely associated with Dewey, namely Herbert Brownell, Jr., William Rogers, Sherman Adams, Henry Cabot Lodge, Max Rabb, James Hagerty. Joe Welch, the humble lawyer from Boston, was recommended by Tom Dewey.

No one has been able to do anything about this schism to date although many have tried, particularly the Vice President, Richard Nixon. While originally the quarrel arose largely over personalities, today it has become a question of control involving the relationships of the Executive and the Congress. To this must be added a contest over the control of the Republican Party, whether it is to be in the hands of those who for 20 years stood by the Republican Party or those who were associated with the Roosevelt and Truman Administrations.

McCarran Nags Air Force For German Construction Of U. S. Bases In Spain

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — It's amazing what one Senator can and will do to help his own friends regarding the construction of U. S. air bases abroad.

For months, Nevada's silver-haired Pat McCarran has been heckling the State and Defense Departments in order to get contracts for a German combine which, in turn, has promised to buy its heavy equipment from one of his Nevada friends. He has cross-examined U. S. officials behind closed doors, called Spanish Cabinet members over the trans-Atlantic phone—all in order to cut the Germans in on the construction of U. S. bases.

He has also used his seniority on the Senate Appropriations Committee to call repeated meetings and badger busy officials, taking care to keep the doors closed and the press barred.

This column, however, has reported what went on after each meeting, and here is a report on the last session.

This time, McCarran charged that though Spain didn't object to German contractors, the United States nevertheless was excluding them. Angrily he accused U. S. officials of favoring American firms over his German friends for the subcontract work, though later he denied this.

At one point, he exploded at Undersecretary of the Air Force James Douglas, charging him with inconsistency.

"Where do you get your idea of consistency?" stormed the Nevadan. "They say consistency is a jewel."

"If I am right . . ." Douglas started to reply.

"How can you be right?" McCarran cut him off.

"It is my recollection that . . ." Douglas began again.

"I don't want your recollection! Never mind your recollection!" bellowed McCarran

"I take it," bristled Douglas, still trying to get a word in, "The Senator objects to the possibility of American firms being associated . . ."

"That is not true, and there is not anything in there to justify that inference," the Nevada Senator almost screamed, though he had previously complained that American firms were getting first crack at the subcontracts ahead of German firms.

McCarran Interrupts

"Now you have engaged in about as much double-talk as I have heard in a short time," he snapped.

"I am sorry the Senator feels that way. It is not intended as double-talk," replied the Air Force official.

"There is not anyone here who can give us information," McCarran added sourly. "I think some day or another we will get the information from some source, but up to date there has been none."

"I think I have to say in reply that we had rather full hearings extending, according to my recollection, over three-and-a-half days," Douglas reminded the Senator.

"I am going to say, Mr. Chairman, and say it for the record," threatened McCarran, "that I am going to oppose any appropriation for this work until the matter has been explained to this committee as to what is being done and who is doing it."

Who Leaked To Pearson?

At one point, McCarran turned and demanded: "Was it you who gave this to Drew Pearson? Was this you who gave the hearings to Drew Pearson?"

"No, sir," denied Douglas.

"Who did out of your Department?" the Navadan kept at him.

"I have no idea," shrugged Douglas.

"You heard him on television, did you not?" demanded McCarran.

"No, I did not," replied the Air Force Undersecretary, "and I would assert in confidence it did not come out of the Air Force."

"It came from some Department," persisted McCarran.

"I have no idea where he got anything on this," reiterated Douglas emphatically.

NOTE TO McCARRAN — The previous hearings did not come from the Air Force. Now guess where this one came from.

Green Stuff For Green

Saul Haas, the Seattle radio-TV Mogul, who has made and unmade Senators in the Northwest, was in the Senate Restaurant while the solons were grabbing a quick bite to eat during night sessions. At one table Saul spied Senator Stuart Symington of Missouri and Senator Theodore Francis Green, much-loved 87-year-old Elder Statesman from Rhode Island.

"Stu," said Haas, leaning over Symington, "We've got to raise some money for Senator Green's re-election. We've got to have him back in the Senate, and I'm going to raise some money for him.

"I've got a hundred dollars right here that I'm going to contribute," continued Haas, and he pulled a hundred-dollar bill out of his pocket. "How about your putting up a hundred dollars too?"

Senator Green has been in the Senate ever since many people in Rhode Island can remember, and being young in physique though old in years, none of his colleagues is much worried about his re-election. Furthermore, Green is one of the Millionaire Senators. So Symington did not rush to follow Haas's suggestion. However, Saul was persistent.

"Come on, Stu," urged Haas. "I'm putting up $100. How about your putting up $100 too to help re-elect Senator Green. We've got to have him back in the Senate."

So while Senator Green looked on a bit embarrassed, Symington dug down into his pocket, counted out ten $10 bills, and gave them to the volunteer treasurer for Senator Green.

Hass thanked him, talked a bit more, then instead of giving the money to Senator Green, went off showing other Senators the two hundred dollars.

White House Press Conferences May Injure GOP

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Presidential press conferences are getting no better—in fact, they are doing increased harm not only to the President and the Republican Party but also to the influence abroad of the foreign policies of the United States.

Unfortunately much of the damage is done because sometimes the President isn't told the full story behind the questions fired at him.

Thus this week Mr. Eisenhower was asked about recurrent suggestions that the United States sever diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia, and he was told that the most recent one came from General Mark Clark. The fact was that the general was a witness before the Senate Rules committee on other subjects, and Senator Jenner of Indiana, chairman, read to him a resolution, introduced by himself and Senator McCarran of Nevada, which would simply express the sense of the Senate that it would be desirable for the United States to sever diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia and the satellite governments. General Clark was asked what he thought about it, and he replied briefly that, if he were a member of the Senate, he would vote for it.

Now Mr. Eisenhower at his press conference was not told that fact nor was he told that a committee of nine members of the House of Representatives, both Republicans and Democrats, had just filed a report unanimously recommending that the President convene an international conference to seek agreement with our allies on the severance of all diplomatic relations and the termination of all trade with the Communist countries. This committee has been taking testimony in Europe and elsewhere for several months from persons of promience who have escaped from the Communist regime and who are in a position to tell Americans how influential such a policy would be in encouraging the peoples behind the Iron Curtain.

But Mr. Eisenhower, without going into the merits of this very difficult and complicated question, rejected offhand any consideration of it. He said that if anyone would sit down and study the conflicting considerations objectively and not merely shoot from the hip on such questions, they would arrive at a similar conclusion.

But how do the nine members of the House committee who have spent many months on this problef feel? Have they been shooting from the hip, or has the President himself been doing that very thing because he has not been properly briefed on how the manifestation by him of a closed mind on this subject can bring discouragement to the enslaved peoples? Why did he have to discuss the question at all?

In domestic affairs, the President also stumbled along at his press conference, leaving in its wake ambiguities that cannot possibly do his party any good. He was asked whether, in view of his statement in the past that he felt an obligation to support all nominees of the Republican Party in the Congressional elections, he would give heed to a protest from Republicans in New Jersey who want the regular party nominee, Clifford Case, to withdraw from the race. Mr. Eisenhower made a confusing answer. He said that generalizations he had made in the past do not stand up. This might permit the inference that he was backing away from his previous position. Then he added that he stood behind the part nominee, Mr. Case.

As a result of his press conference information, The New York Times had a headline the next day on its front page: "President To Back Own Candidates, Ignoring Factions." Beneath it was an article saying the President "made it clear that the non-Eisenhower and anti-Eisenhower Republicans could have no assurance in each and every case of White House assistance."

It isn't clear at all whether the President is backing away from support of all nominees of the Republican Party and means to be choosy about those who don't entirely support his program, thus preferring to let some Democratic nominees win. This could conceivably mean a Democratic Congress if the voting is close.

What seems worst of all at the press conference was the revelation that the President and his principal assistant, former Governor Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, are not working as closely together as might be imagined. The President was asked about the statement by Mr. Adams on a television program implying that the President might not run again in 1956. Mr. Eisenhower replied that he didn't know why any member of his staff was saying these things, that Governor Adams had never spoken about it to him nor had anyone else on his staff. He did say they had a right to speculate, but that whatever facts Mr. Adams had he wished he would give them to the President, for he (Mr. Eisenhower) had none.

If this were the first time Mr. Adams had discussed the subject publicly, it might be surprising, but he has made previous speeches on that subject. One would think by this time the President and his assistant would have had a heart-to-heart talk about the danger of raising doubts inside the Republican Party as to whether it is to have the benefit of Mr. Eisenhower's leadership in a second term. It is conceded that politically—and especially in Congress—any doubt about running for a second term materially weakens an incumbent President. Caution at press conferences — or, perhaps better, briefings for the President ahead of time—might spare the Republican Party a lot of headaches.

Leukemia Has No Known Cure, But Remedies Help

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Leukemia, mistakenly called cancer of the blood, has none of the characteristics of cancer. It does not spread to other organs nor does microscopic study reveal the usual evidence of malignancy. It is a condition in which more white corpuscles are produced than the body needs.

In a normal person, the white blood count rarely exceeds 10,000 whereas in leukemia, the reading may be as high as 500,000. The white cells become so numerous the blood assumes a milky color which is why the disease is called leukemia, a word meaning white blood.

The cause is not known. There is an acute and a chronic form and the manifestations are different. The acute variety is most common in children and runs a shorter course than the milder, or chronic type which favors adults and is more prevalent.

Most victims of chronic leukemia complain of weakness and there is enlargement of the lymph glands in the neck armpits and groins. Fever and bleeding tendencies may be present Diagnosis is made by studying the blood and bone marrow.

There appears to be a relationship between exposure to X-ray and the development of the disease. Studies have revealed that among X-ray specialists, the incidence is nine times as high as in physicians who do not confine their work to this branch of medicine. This complication would not be applicable to the average citizen unless an atomic bomb should strike. Atomic rays have the same effect as X-rays, judging from studies made on survivors of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki blasts.

Heredity also plays a role as blood relatives of the victim stand a 17 times greater chance of acquiring the disease than do those in the general population. These factors will be of little help to the reader who wants to know how to avoid leukemia, living in the country where the chances of being bombed by the new weapons are minimal, and becoming a farmer rather than an X-ray specialist.

Some day a cure will be found. The newer remedies come close. They relieve pain, prolong life, and are tremendous morale builders. Most of these products inhibit the production of white blood cells by depressing the function of the blood forming organs.

Triethylene melamine (TEM) is one of the most promising of the newer adjuncts. Other treatments include X-ray (strange as it may seem), nitrogen mustard, folic acid antogonists, ACTH, cortisone, and radioactive phosphorus. In addition, many sufferers require transfusions, antibiotics, iron, liver, or vitamin B12.

SUN THROUGH PANE

F. C. writes: Does a person get any benefit from the sun coming through a window pane?
REPLY

Ordinary window glass filters out ultraviolet but not the infrared rays. This means that a person would not become sunburned or tanned by sitting at a closed window with the sun shining through but he would receive the heat rays. According to Dr. Ben Boynton, quartz is the exception. It admits ultraviolet rays and in the past was used in a few institutions for this purpose.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Relax And Take It Easy

By Brother Barnabas

"First Class passengers keep your seats!
"Second Class passengers get out and walk!
"Third Class passengers get out and push!"

Such was the weird announcement of the operator of an old-fashioned motorbus that was trying to make a steep grade.

Nowadays travel has become revolutionized. Hills are graded down, roads are widened, curves are straightened out, mountains are tunneled through, rivers and chasms are bridged over.

Highways costing a million dollars a mile are stretching across the continent to care for the rapidly increasing truck and automobile traffic.

One can go coach or Pullman in ventilated air-conditioned cars with tip-happy plush comfort and faultless dining car cuisine.

If one travels by plane he is never ordered to "get out and push."

Whatever makes living more convenient and livable becomes a necessity. A woman had all her teeth out and a Frigidaire moved in.

We have it on high authority that mountains can be moved by faith. A wise man said, "I believe it because it is impossible." Impossibles only take more time.

The Panama Canal was built in spite of almost insuperable obstacles. Faith did it.

Five railroads and three tunnels honeycomb the Alps since Napoleon said, "There shall be no Alps."

Rome was built on seven hills. It was founded in 753 B.C. by Romulus, and named after him. It was the spanning of those seven hills with bridges and tunnels that made Rome the greatest city in the antique world.

Our Queen City, with its arteries of commerce proliferating over hills and valleys in the Tri-State area, could be a small replica of that ancient capital which was "not built in a day."

The Natural Bridge in Virginia, with its 90-foot span and its 215-foot height, is one of America's natural wonders.

Nature has not dealt so generously with our community, but we do have the butments for a natural bridge and the raw materials for its construction. All we need is the brains and the brawn to put them together. Then we shall have another American city of great distinction.

A young suitor asked the father of the girl for the hand of his daughter in marriage.

Said the father, "I have five daughters and two sons, and don't feel like taking on another to support."

"I didn't mean to come and live with you. I only want to take her from you to live with me," replied the ardent youth.

"In that case it is O. K., but you gave me a terrible shock," said the yielding father.

The sheer proposition for the city to go in debt to the tune of $10 to $12 million dollars for a bridge seems foolish. But when the state agrees to pay nearly all the bill, it becomes a horse of another color.

The Mayor and City Council have shown Scotch canniness in buying a bridge for practically a song, which will mean the uniting of the more or less isolated sections of our city into one unit of population, as well as furthering the long-standing plan of the national government in its road building program.

A man was put in jail and he sent for his lawyer. "What was the charge against you?" asked the counsel.

"Guilt by association," replied the accused.

"They can't put you in jail for that," said the lawyer.

"But they have," said the victim.

"Then I'll get you out by habeas corpus or mandamus proceedings."

One day an English lord got word at his London house that some remarkable ant-hills had been found at New Timber, and he decided to go down and investigate.

After a happy day among the ants he caught the afternoon train back to London.

Very soon he began to feel uneasy, as it appeared that some of the ants had invaded his trousers and were unpleasantly active.

He was alone in a first class carriage, there was no corridor, and it was a non-stop train to Victoria. He decided therefore to take off his trousers and shake them out of the window.

He was doing this successfully when the train plunged into a tunnel and the sudden gust of compressed air blew his ballooning trousers out of his hands and they were gone.

When the train reached Victoria he stood on his dignity with his shirttail flapping about his bare legs.

To the astonished porter he announced majestically, "I am Lord Buxton!" The porter immediately shouted to his pal, "Hey, Bill, come quick! 'Ere's a bloke gone balmy!"

Ants in pants are bad, but a lot of people get 'em.

Detroit Lions Trim College All-Star Gridders, 31 To 6

Tom Dublinski Stars For Pros Before 93,470

Fumble Paves Way For Collegians' Lone TD; Gate Is $445,650

By TED SMITS

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP)—Young Tom Dublinski, an alumnus of Utah, piloted the Detroit Lions to victory tonight, 31 to 6 over the College All-Stars before 93,470 at Soldier Field in the first big game of the 1954 football season. Gross receipts were $445,650.

Dublinski took over the quarterback post of Bobby Layne, the ace of the National Football League Champions, and passed and ran in sparkling style. Jack Christiansen and Lew Carpenter gave him solid support.

The All-Stars, bottled up most of the time by the big Detroit line, scored their only touchdown at the start of the third period when Dublinski fumbled on the Detroit 15, for his only bad miscue of the night, and Jerry Hilgenberg of Iowa recovered on the 5. Johnny Lattner of Notre Dame scored on a wide sweep.

The game was played under college rules restricting substitutions. The Lions, accustomed to the two platoon system, used a patched lineup that was, nevertheless, highly effective.

Lattner, Carlton Massey of Texas, a big end, and Zeke Bratowski of Georgia, a sharp passing quarterback, and Veryl Switzer, a Kansas back, looked best for the All-Stars, coached by Jim Tatum of Maryland.

Kicks 46-Yard Goal

The Lions opened their scoring on a spectacular note. With the ball on the All-Star 28, James Martin dropped back to the 36 and kicked a low, fast field goal, a total distance of 46 yards. Lattner's fumble, recovered by Thurman McGraw, set it up. The three points came after only 2:57 of play, and from then on it was the Lions' game.

One of the most surprising touchdowns occurred in the last period when James Doran of the Lions snatched the ball out of the arms of Neil Worden of Notre Dame and ran 34 yards to score.

Dublinski, a tall, 24-year-old quarterback, got his big chance because Coach Buddy Parker preferred to save Bobby Layne for the regular league season. He cashed in with clean passes and several swift thrusts into the line and around end.

The longest ground gain made by the All-Stars was by Switzer, just before the half ended, good for 27 yards. He carried the ball to his 39, but the attack ended abruptly.

Doak Walker Scores

The Lions' two first period touchdowns both were made on long drives. The first was scored in seven plays starting from midfield, with Lewis Carpenter ripping off 20 yards to set the march going, and Doak Walker scoring from the 5. The Lions drove 74 yards for their second touchdown, and Carpenter's 21 yard dash close to the sidelines was the longest gain again. He scored the touchdown from the 2.

After the All-Stars had scored their single touchdown at the start of the second half, to make it 17-6, the Lions reacted with savage fury. Taking the ball on their 32, they moved promptly to a touchdown, with Dublinski passing to Dorne Dibble for 20 and 17 yards, and Carpenter finally scoring from the 2 after Christiansen's 12 yard run set it up.

The victory of the Lions matched their 24-10 triumph last year, and was the fourth in a row the professionals have scored over the collegians. The series has now reached 21 games, 13 of which were won by the Pros and six by the Collegians, with two ties.

Net proceeds of the game go to the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.

The Lions were favored to win only by a touchdown. They used only 25 players as against 48 for the Collegians.

Bob Toski Hangs Up Record 132 For 36 Holes At Tam O'Shanter

New Jerseyite Leads By Three Strokes In $150,000 "World" Golf

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP) — Bob Toski, a 127-pound walloper from Livingston, N. J., turned Tam O'-Shanter into a target range today with a 34-31—65 for a 36-hole course record total of 132—12 under par—and a three-stroke lead at the halfway mark in the $150,000 "World" tournament.

The little 27-year-old pro, third on the PGA money-winning list with a collection of $14,938, had a good working margin as he headed for tomorrow's third round in the stampede for an unprecedented first award of $50,000 in cash and a $50,000 exhibition contract.

His nearest rivals were two veterans, Johnny Palmer, 36-year-old North Carolinian who won the "World" in 1949, and the persistent tournament chaser, 44-year-old Dutch Harrison.

Palmer, Harrison Trail

Palmer fired a 36-32—68 in the second round and the unflagging Harrison coupled 34's, each to draw up at 135.

Only one stroke away at 136 were well-seasoned George Fazio with a 66; Walter Burkemo, 1953 national PGA champion and runner-up this year, with 70; Jack Burke with 67; Earl Stewart Jr., the first round leader who welded a 71 to his opening 65; and British Open titlist, Peter Thomson of Melbourne, who notched a second straight 68.

"I feel pretty good about those 68's," said the 24-year-old Thomson, current rage of the British Commonwealth. "But I think it will take four of them to win."

The 140 shooters included National Open Champion Ed Furgol, Porky Oliver and Sam Snead, who staggered for a 39-33—72 after an opening 68.

"I understand Nelson was the youngest player ever to win a title at Tam—but now it will be Toski," grinned the little walloper. "All this money doesn't scare me."

Nelson was 29 when he took the Tam inaugural in 1941 and no winner has been under 30 since.

Meanwhile, however, other money-hounds had taken up the scent and were close to Toski's heels in the greatest coin chase golf has ever seen.

Burkemo Among Leaders

Walter Burkemo, 1953 National PGA king and runner-up this year, fired 33-37—70 and Jack Burke had 35-32—67, both totaling 136.

Big Al Besselink fashioned 32-33—65 for 137, and All American champion Jerry Barber also was grouped at 137 with 33-34—67.

In other "World" divisions being run off simultaneously in the complex Tam jamboree, these were the 36-hole standings:

Men amateurs—Arnold Palmer of Cleveland with a 70 today for 138. Frank Stranahan second with 72 for 141.

Women amateurs—Mickey Wright of San Diego with 76 and "Wiffe" Smith, defending champion from La Canada, Calif., with 74—each with a 153 total.

Women pros—Patty Berg, 75 for 144, eight under par. Louis Suggs second with 76 for 148, and All-American champion Babe Zaharias third with 73 for 149.

LaVale's Maroons moved within a game of first place in the Pen-Mar Little Baseball League by whipping the front-running Ellerslie nine yesterday at LaVale by the score of 14-5.

The Maroons racked up 15 hits. Mike McKenzie smashed a triple, double and single, Steve Holler garnered a two-bagger and two singles, Arnold Zaks belted a pair of triples and Mickey Scaletta and Ray Smith had two hits each.

Ted Femi, winning pitcher, yielded seven hits which included Don Lowery's triple and single and two blows each by Royce Waltman and Jack Lowery.

Carl Furillo's Home Run Beats New York, 3-2

Dodgers Move Within 2½ Games Of Lead

BROOKLYN, Aug. 13 (AP) — Carl Furillo smashed a two-run homer into the left field stands in the seventh inning tonight as the Brooklyn Dodgers came from behind and whipped the New York Giants 3-2. The victory moved the Dodgers to within 2½ games of the league leading Giants.

Furillo's blast, his 10th of the season, followed a single by Gil Hodges leading off in the eighth against Marv Grissom. Manager Leo Durocher had yanked starter Sal Maglie after the Giants took a 2-1 lead in the top of the seventh.

Carl Erskine stopped the New Yorkers on six hits for his 15th victory and struck out nine.

The most important strikeout for the strong-armed righthander came in the eighth. With two out, Don Mueller looped a single into left field and moved to third when Hank Thompson, who had fanned three straight times, lifted a bloop single just out of the reach of Pee Wee Reese. Up came Willie Mays, who had hit a home run in every New York game in Brooklyn this season.

Erskine worked the count to 3-2 on the slugger, then blazed a fast ball past Mays as the Giant centerfielder swung from the heels.

U.S. Retains Golf Trophy

Cops Americas Cup By 14-13 Margin

LONDON, Ont., Aug. 13 (AP)—The United States retained its Americas Cup golf championship today but was pressed every hold of the way by an underrated but unperturbed team from Canada.

Solid pre-tournament favorites, the U. S. players—the very cream of the land—won by the narrowest of margins, 14 to 13.

Mexico, lost in the tense, bitter struggle, failed to score in the two-day international amateur matches at the London Hunt and Country Club.

The United States took a one-point edge into today's six singles matches, leading 5 to 4, and that slim margin turned out to be the difference.

Canada and the U. S. split six singles matches, while each swept six from the outclassed Mexicans.

The U. S. winners are Don Cherry, the Wichita Falls, Tex., crooner; Billy Joe Patton, Morgantown, N. C., slugger who recovered from Thursday's shoddy showing, and lanky, sober-faced Charlie Coe, former U. S. amateur king from Oklahoma City.

Defeated by the Canadians were Dale Morey, Western Amateur champion from Indianapolis; Big Bill Campbell, Huntington, W. Va., veteran who blew a sizable lead, and Harvie Ward, handsome San Franciscan.

Pirates Bag 25-6 Win In Frostburg Circuit

FROSTBURG, Aug. 13 — The Pirates went on a rampage today and ran roughshod over the Red Sox in a Frostburg Little League game by the score of 25-6.

Heading the 22-game assault was Gene Zumpano's two homers and two bagger, Biggs' circuit belt and two singles, Smith's four-bagger and double and a round-tripper by Winebrenner. Watkinson accounted for two of the losers' six hits.

Schute's Cops Series Opener

Roofers Score Over Cunningham's, 15-3

Schute's Roofers scored 15 runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings yesterday to defeat Cunningham's Grocery in the opener of the best-of-three playoff semi-finals in the City Softball League at Stitcher Field. The score was 15-3.

Adams' homer with two mates aboard accounted for all of the Grocers' tallies in the second inning.

Ray Taylor, a 10-game winner during the regular season, went the route for the Roofers, and yielded only four hits.

Dick Klavuhn homered and Brown and Taylor had two hits each for the winners.

The second game of the series is set for today at 7:30 p. m. at Penn Avenue Field. In the opener of the twin bill at 6:30 the Amvets will meet the Old Germans in the second game of their series. The Old Gees copped the opener, 7-3. Yesterday's score:

The pennant-winning Jaycees lowered the curtain on their 14-game schedule in the Hot Stove Baseball League by thumping the Optimists last night at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 9-2.

Failure to win last night's game means that the Optimists must finish their schedule today with the Exchange Club at 10 o'clock at Stitcher Field. A win for the Optimists would clinch a fourth place playoff berth but a defeat would tie the Times-News with the Optimists on the final day, thus necessitating a playoff.

Gary Wolford tossed a 4-hitter at the Optimists and fanned 13 last night. The victory was his fourth against a single defeat.

Kreitzburg's Indians Scalp Tigers, 11-10, Earn Playoff Berth

Manager "Whip" Kreitzburg's Indians won a place in the Dapper Dan Little League playoffs by edging the Tigers in an extra inning battle last night at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 11-10.

The teams were tied for second place in the Dan Division with 10-5 records prior to last night's game. The Senators and Indians of the Dan loop and the Pirates and Red Sox of the Dapper circuit will compete in the playoffs to begin next week.

The Indians scored the winning run in the 7th on walks to Tom Klosterman and "Nip" Stratton, a passed ball which enabled Klosterman to advance to third and a fielder's choice by Franklin Brode. Brode grounded to shortstop but the latter's throw failed to reach home in time to cut down Klosterman.

Mike Firle, Virgil Morrale and Ed Goss had two hits each for the Indians. Home runs produced seven of the Tigers' runs. Imes, who hit safely three times in four trips, hit a grand slam homer and Jimmy Kline socked a four-bagger with two mates aboard. Score:

Rickey To Quit Active Duty At Close Of 1955

To Retire As Bucs' General Manager

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 13 (AP) — Branch Rickey is retiring as general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates at the expiration of his 5-year contract in November of 1955.

Saying he will retire from "active duty" next year, Rickey declared in an interview that he hopes to continue his association with the Pirates. He added:

"I shall continue to work for the Pittsburgh club, and without salary, after the expiration of my contract, if so permitted."

Rickey said a few days ago before leaving for a Canadian vacation, "I intend to devote myself, more or less, largely to scouting until the time comes when I can sit in the stands and watch the team in a World Series."

The 72-year-old Rickey has spent 52 years in baseball.

Rickey signed his five-year contract, at a reputed $100,000 a year, in November of 1950. Although he has had outstanding success with the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals he has met with disappointment here. The club finished seventh in 1951, last in 1952-53 and is last at the present time in the National League pennant chase.

Detroit Lions Trim College All-Star Gridders, 31 To 6

Tom Dublinski Stars For Pros Before 93,470

Fumble Paves Way For Collegians' Lone TD; Gate Is $445,650

By TED SMITS

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP)—Young Tom Dublinski, an alumnus of Utah, piloted the Detroit Lions to victory tonight, 31 to 6 over the College All-Stars before 93,470 at Soldier Field in the first big game of the 1954 football season. Gross receipts were $445,650.

Dublinski took over the quarterback post of Bobby Layne, the ace of the National Football League Champions, and passed and ran in sparkling style. Jack Christiansen and Lew Carpenter gave him solid support.

The All-Stars, bottled up most of the time by the big Detroit line, scored their only touchdown at the start of the third period when Dublinski fumbled on the Detroit 15, for his only bad miscue of the night, and Jerry Hilgenberg of Iowa recovered on the 5. Johnny Lattner of Notre Dame scored on a wide sweep.

The game was played under college rules restricting substitutions. The Lions, accustomed to the two platoon system, used a patched lineup that was, nevertheless, highly effective.

Lattner, Carlton Massey of Texas, a big end, and Zeke Bratowski of Georgia, a sharp passing quarterback, and Veryl Switzer, a Kansas back, looked best for the All-Stars, coached by Jim Tatum of Maryland.

Kicks 46-Yard Goal

The Lions opened their scoring on a spectacular note. With the ball on the All-Star 28, James Martin dropped back to the 36 and kicked a low, fast field goal, a total distance of 46 yards. Lattner's fumble, recovered by Thurman McGraw, set it up. The three points came after only 2:57 of play, and from then on it was the Lions' game.

One of the most surprising touchdowns occurred in the last period when James Doran of the Lions snatched the ball out of the arms of Neil Worden of Notre Dame and ran 34 yards to score.

Dublinski, a tall, 24-year-old quarterback, got his big chance because Coach Buddy Parker preferred to save Bobby Layne for the regular league season. He cashed in with clean passes and several swift thrusts into the line and around end.

The longest ground gain made by the All-Stars was by Switzer, just before the half ended, good for 27 yards. He carried the ball to his 39, but the attack ended abruptly.

Doak Walker Scores

The Lions' two first period touchdowns both were made on long drives. The first was scored in seven plays starting from midfield, with Lewis Carpenter ripping off 20 yards to set the march going, and Doak Walker scoring from the 5. The Lions drove 74 yards for their second touchdown, and Carpenter's 21 yard dash close to the sidelines was the longest gain again. He scored the touchdown from the 2.

After the All-Stars had scored their single touchdown at the start of the second half, to make it 17-6, the Lions reacted with savage fury. Taking the ball on their 32, they moved promptly to a touchdown, with Dublinski passing to Dorne Dibble for 20 and 17 yards, and Carpenter finally scoring from the 2 after Christiansen's 12 yard run set it up.

The victory of the Lions matched their 24-10 triumph last year, and was the fourth in a row the professionals have scored over the collegians. The series has now reached 21 games, 13 of which were won by the Pros and six by the Collegians, with two ties.

Net proceeds of the game go to the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.

The Lions were favored to win only by a touchdown. They used only 25 players as against 48 for the Collegians.

St. Louis Wins, 10-8

CINCINNATI, Aug. 13 (AP) — A sinking liner by Wally Moon in the ninth inning — which Cincinnati Manager Birdie Tebbetts claimed was caught—gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 10-8 come-from-behind victory tonight over the Redlegs. Tebbetts was thrown out of the game when he protested centerfielder Gus Bell snared the ball to retire the side.

Bob Toski Hangs Up Record 132 For 36 Holes At Tam O'Shanter

New Jerseyite Leads By Three Strokes In $150,000 "World" Golf

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP) — Bob Toski, a 127-pound walloper from Livingston, N. J., turned Tam O'Shanter into a target range today with a 34-31—65 for a 36-hole course record total of 132—12 under par—and a three-stroke lead at the halfway mark in the $150,000 "World" tournament.

The little 27-year-old pro, third on the PGA money-winning list with a collection of $14,938, had a good working margin as he headed for tomorrow's third round in the stampede for an unprecedented first award of $50,000 in cash and a $50,000 exhibition contract.

His nearest rivals were two veterans, Johnny Palmer, 36-year-old North Carolinian who won the "World" in 1949, and the persistent tournament chaser, 44-year-old Dutch Harrison.

Palmer, Harrison Trail

Palmer fired a 36-32—68 in the second round and the unflagging Harrison coupled 34's, each to draw up at 135.

Only one stroke away at 136 were well-seasoned George Fazio with a 66; Walter Burkemo, 1953 national PGA champion and runner-up this year, with 70; Jack Burke with 67; Earl Stewart Jr., the first round leader who welded a 71 to his opening 65; and British Open titlist, Peter Thomson of Melbourne, who notched a second straight 68.

"I feel pretty good about those 68's," said the 24-year-old Thomson, current rage of the British Commonwealth. "But I think it will take four of them to win."

The 140 shooters included National Open Champion Ed Furgol, Porky Oliver and Sam Snead, who staggered for a 39-33—72 after an opening 68.

"I understand Nelson was the youngest player ever to win a title at Tam—but now it will be Toski," grinned the little walloper. "All this money doesn't scare me."

Nelson was 29 when he took the Tam inaugural in 1941 and no winner has been under 30 since.

Meanwhile, however, other money-hounds had taken up the scent and were close to Toski's heels in the greatest coin chase golf has ever seen.

Burkemo Among Leaders

Walter Burkemo, 1953 National PGA king and runner-up this year, fired 33-37—70 and Jack Burke had 35-32—67, both totaling 136.

Big Al Besselink fashioned 32-33—65 for 137, and All American champion Jerry Barber also was grouped at 137 with 33-34—67.

In other "World" divisions being run off simultaneously in the complex Tam jamboree, these were the 36-hole standings:

Men amateurs—Arnold Palmer of Cleveland with a 70 today for 138. Frank Stranahan second with 72 for 141.

Women amateurs — Mickey Wright of San Diego with 76 and "Wiffe" Smith, defending champion from La Canada, Calif., with 74—each with a 153 total.

Women pros—Patty Berg, 75 for 144, eight under par. Louis Suggs second with 76 for 148, and All-American champion Babe Zaharias third with 73 for 149.

Carl Furillo's Home Run Beats New York, 3-2

Dodgers Move Within 2½ Games Of Lead

BROOKLYN, Aug. 13 (AP) — Carl Furillo smashed a two-run homer into the left field stands in the seventh inning tonight as the Brooklyn Dodgers came from behind and whipped the New York Giants 3-2. The victory moved the Dodgers to within 2½ games of the league leading Giants.

Furillo's blast, his 10th of the season, followed a single by Gil Hodges leading off in the eighth against Marv Grissom. Manager Leo Durocher had yanked starter Sal Maglie after the Giants took a 2-1 lead in the top of the seventh.

Carl Erskine stopped the New Yorkers on six hits for his 15th victory and struck out nine.

The most important strikeout for the strong-armed righthander came in the eighth. With two out, Don Mueller looped a single into left field and moved to third when Hank Thompson, who had fanned three straight times, lifted a bloop single just out of the reach of Pee Wee Reese. Up came Willie Mays, who had hit a home run in every New York game in Brooklyn this season.

Erskine worked the count to 3-2 on the slugger, then blazed a fast ball past Mays as the Giant centerfielder swung from the heels.

U.S. Retains Golf Trophy

Cops Americas Cup By 14-13 Margin

LONDON, Ont., Aug. 13 (AP)—The United States retained its Americas Cup golf championship today but was pressed every hold of the way by an underrated but unperturbed team from Canada.

Solid pre-tournament favorites, the U. S. players—the very cream of the land—won by the narrowest of margins, 14 to 13.

Mexico, lost in the tense, bitter struggle, failed to score in the two-day international amateur matches at the London Hunt and Country Club.

The United States took a one-point edge into today's six singles matches, leading 5 to 4, and that slim margin turned out to be the difference.

Canada and the U. S. split six singles matches, while each swept six from the outclassed Mexicans.

The U. S. winners are Don Cherry, the Wichita Falls, Tex., crooner; Billy Joe Patton, Morgantown, N. C., slugger who recovered from Thursday's shoddy showing, and lanky, sober-faced Charlie Coe, former U. S. amateur king from Oklahoma City.

Defeated by the Canadians were Dale Morey, Western Amateur champion from Indianapolis; Big Bill Campbell, Huntington, W. Va., veteran who blew a sizable lead, and Harvie Ward, handsome San Franciscan.

Pirates Bag 25-6 Win In Frostburg Circuit

FROSTBURG, Aug. 13 — The Pirates went on a rampage today and ran roughshod over the Red Sox in a Frostburg Little League game by the score of 25-6.

Heading the 22-game assault was Gene Zumpano's two homers and two bagger, Biggs' circuit belt and two singles, Smith's four-bagger and double and a round-tripper by Winebrenner. Watkinson accounted for two of the losers' six hits.

Schute's Roofers scored 15 runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings yesterday to defeat Cunningham's Grocery in the opener of the best-of-three playoff semi-finals in the City Softball League at Stitcher Field. The score was 15-3.

Adams' homer with two mates aboard accounted for all of the Grocers' tallies in the second inning.

Ray Taylor, a 10-game winner during the regular season, went the route for the Roofers, and yielded only four hits.

Dick Klavuhn homered and Brown and Taylor had two hits each for the winners.

The second game of the series is set for today at 7:30 p. m. at Penn Avenue Field. In the opener of the twin bill at 6:30 the Amvets will meet the Old Germans in the second game of their series. The Old Gees copped the opener, 7-3. Yesterday's score:

The pennant-winning Jaycees lowered the curtain on their 14-game schedule in the Hot Stove Baseball League by thumping the Optimists last night at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 9-2.

Failure to win last night's game means that the Optimists must finish their schedule today with the Exchange Club at 10 o'clock at Stitcher Field. A win for the Optimists would clinch a fourth place playoff berth but a defeat would tie the Times-News with the Optimists on the final day, thus necessitating a playoff.

Gary Wolford tossed a 4-hitter at the Optimists and fanned 13 last night. The victory was his fourth against a single defeat.

Kreitzburg's Indians Scalp Tigers, 11-10, Earn Playoff Berth

Manager "Whip" Kreitzburg's Indians won a place in the Dapper Dan Little League playoffs by edging the Tigers in an extra inning battle last night at Penn Avenue Field by the score of 11-10.

The teams were tied for second place in the Dan Division with 10-5 records prior to last night's game. The Senators and Indians of the Dan loop and the Pirates and Red Sox of the Dapper circuit will compete in the playoffs to begin next week.

The Indians scored the winning run in the 7th on walks to Tom Klosterman and "Nip" Stratton, a passed ball which enabled Klosterman to advance to third and a fielder's choice by Franklin Brode. Brode grounded to shortstop but the latter's throw failed to reach home in time to cut down Klosterman.

Mike Firle, Virgil Morrale and Ed Goss had two hits each for the Indians. Home runs produced seven of the Tigers' runs. Imes, who hit safely three times in four trips, hit a grand slam homer and Jimmy Kline socked a four-bagger with two mates aboard. Score:

Rickey To Quit Active Duty At Close Of 1955

To Retire As Bucs' General Manager

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 13 (AP) — Branch Rickey is retiring as general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates at the expiration of his 5-year contract in November of 1955.

Saying he will retire from "active duty" next year, Rickey declared in an interview that he hopes to continue his association with the Pirates. He added:

"I shall continue to work for the Pittsburgh club, and without salary, after the expiration of my contract, if so permitted."

Rickey said a few days ago before leaving for a Canadian vacation, "I intend to devote myself, more or less, largely to scouting until the time comes when I can sit in the stands and watch the team in a World Series."

The 72-year-old Rickey has spent 52 years in baseball.

Rickey signed his five-year contract, at a reputed $100,000 a year, in November of 1950. Although he has had outstanding success with the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals he has met with disappointment here. The club finished seventh in 1951, last in 1952-53 and is last at the present time in the National League pennant chase.

Mellon Is Among 150 Entries In All-America Soap Box Derby

National Event Is Set Sunday At Akron, Ohio

Jimmy Starts In 32nd Heat; 60,000 To See Finals Set For 4 P. M.

(Special To The News)

AKRON, Ohio, Aug. 13—Jimmy Mellon weighs only 83 pounds, but he'll be toting a man-sized responsibility on his 13-year-old shoulders when he whisks down world-famous derby downs tomorrow, carrying with him Cumberland's hopes in the all-American soap box derby.

The youngster from McCoole, third brother in his family to compete in the All-American as a Cumberland champion, is slated to take the starting line in a three-car race, 32nd heat on the day's program. He'll be racing in the center lane, while flanking him will be Brenton Sorlien, 15, of Fargo, N. D. and George Perkins, 11, of Petersburg, Va.

Mellon Makes Trial Run

Mellon passed his inspection yesterday with flying colors. He has his car weighed 233 pounds and unofficial timers had him negotiating the Derby Downs course in 28 seconds flat during his trial run.

Tomorrow's Derby is scheduled to get under way at 2 p. m., following the traditional pre-race parade at 1 o'clock. Clear and cool predicted, although the weatherman says there is an outside chance of widely scattered showers in late afternoon. And a crowd of 60,000 is anticipated for classic.

Celebrities Take Part

Movie and television celebrities who will take part in Sunday's big program at Derby Downs are to be formally introduced here today.

JIMMY MELLON

Robert Cummings is scheduled to arrive at 2 p. m. Jack Carson and his wife, Lola Albright at 2:30 p. m., and Bud Abbott and Lou Costello at 3 p. m. They will visit the 150 champions at Camp Derbytown today and all will take part in the big parade tomorrow.

Abbott and Costello usually do everything as a team, but tomorrow the chubby Costello will carry "all the weight" in the Oil Can Trophy Race. Costello will compete against Carson and Cummings, while Abbott waves the green flag at the finish line to signify the start of the race.

Finals of the derby will be broadcast over a nation-wide CBS hookup, starting at 4 p. m.

Mellon's Parents Arrive

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mellon parents of Cumberland's Derby hope, arrived in Akron yesterday and saw their son take his trial run. Accompanying them was another son, Ricardo, Cumberland champ in 1951. All three will be in the stands for tomorrow's race.

Ernesto, first of three Mellons to cop the Cumberland championship in 1950, was unable to make the trip.

FAMILIAR dugout pose.

HOME of the Athletics.

WITH John McGraw, Giants' manager, in 1912.

JIMMY FOXX was one of his greatest batters.

BOWING OUT in 1950 with Jimmy Dykes becoming manager.

ON DECEMBER 22, 1862, at East Brookfield, Mass., Cornelius McGillicuddy was born, the third son of Michael and Mary McKillop McGillicuddy. The boy became a baseball player, after first working in a cotton mill and learning the trade of a shoemaker. After several years as a player, he turned to managing and then, in 1900, established the "Athletics" to represent Philadelphia in the new American league. He became manager of the "Athletics" in 1901. That was the early story of Mr. Connie Mack, the "grand old man" of baseball. The middle chapters of the story of Connie Mack and his Athletics are inspiring reading for they feature success. The final chapters are being written and give the saga an unhappy ending. The once-proud Athletics face dark days as the club, without a pennant since 1931, dies on its feet. The House of Mack crumbles although efforts are being made to save it. (International)

Griffith Opposes Shift Of A's To Kansas City

Toronto Is Suggested As Good Possibility

By HERB ALTSCHULL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Washington Senators today came out against the proposed shift of the Philadelphia Athletics' franchise to Kansas City. Calvin Griffith, the Senators' executive vice president, said he would vote against any such move.

Three adverse votes by American League clubs would veto a shift of the franchise to Kansas City.

Griffith said things haven't advanced far enough yet for him to say whether he would take part in an active campaign to halt the move, but the indication was he wouldn't give up without a fight.

It's all because the St. Louis Browns have moved to Baltimore. As things stand now, Baltimore is a "western" club and rarely has home dates when Washington is playing at home.

If Philadelphia's franchise went to Kansas City, Baltimore in all likelihood would become an "eastern" club and would be playing half its home games when Washington also was at home.

Baltimore is only 40 miles from Washington.

"There just aren't enough people in this area to support two teams," Griffith said.

It's a good bet that the Baltimore ownership also would vote against the shift to Kansas City. So it would be necessary to line up only one more adverse vote to defeat the proposed shift.

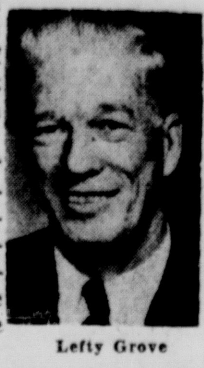
Griffith said he wouldn't like to see the A's move out of Philadelphia at all. But he added that this doesn't mean he wouldn't give his approval to a franchise shift to some city other than Kansas City.

He suggested Toronto as a good possibility.

Grove To Hurl In Hall Of Fame Contest Today

Stars Of Yesteryear To Play In New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (AP)—Twenty of the greatest stars ever developed in baseball will pair off in a special Hall of Fame game at Yankee Stadium tomorrow.



Lefty Grove

Eight former big league managers will be included in the lineups under the direction of Connie Mack and Joe McCarthy.

George Weiss, general manager of the Yankees, said the players will be divided into American and National League teams for a short game but the length won't be decided until all of the stars are assembled. Game time is 1 p.m. (EST).

Weiss added that nobody would be asked to play who didn't feel up to it. He said tentative lineups shape up like this:

National League — Bill Terry, 1B; Rogers Hornsby, 2B; Frank Frisch, SS; Pie Traynor, 3B; Hank Greenberg, LF; Paul Waner, CF; Mel Ott, RF; Gabby Hartnett, C; Carl Hubbell and Dazzy Vance, pitchers.

Central Tossers Top Stringtown

Win Opening Contest In Playoffs, 6 To 3

Central Quick Lunch defeated Stringtown by the score of 6-3 yesterday at Corriganville in the opening game of the playoff semi-finals in the County Softball League.

The winners collected 11 hits, six of which were shared by Russ Robertson, Charley Crabtree and Stanley Leasure. Both of Robertson's blows were two-baggers.

Ed Decker, a nine-game winner during the regular season, kept Stringtown's seven hits well spaced. J. Gauss accounted for three of the safeties, a triple, double and single and J. Sager had two one-base wallops to his credit.

The second game of the best-of-three series between Stringtown and Central Quick Lunch is scheduled for Wednesday at Stringtown.

Potomac Valley leads in the other semi-final series, having won the opener from Corriganville, 10-0. These teams collide again Tuesday at Corriganville. Yesterday's score:

Chicago Sox Beat Tigers In 16th, 1-0

Harshman Beats Aber On Minoso's Triple

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP)—Minnie Minoso's triple, scoring Nellie Fox from first base in the 16th inning, broke up a brilliant pitching duel between Jack Harshman and Al Aber and gave the Chicago White Sox a 1-0 victory over the Detroit Tigers today.

Chico Carrasquel opened the home 16th with a single to left, the eighth hit off Aber. Fox attempted to sacrifice but forced Carrasquel. Minoso then sliced a drive down the right field line and Fox raced home to end the three hour and 50 minute marathon.

Claim Usher Interfered

The Tigers argued that an usher, stationed in foul territory to retrieve foul balls, had interfered with outfielder Al Kaline, but the umpires couldn't see it that way. They contended the usher had gotten up from his chair and made a move toward the ball but did not touch it or interfere with Kaline.

Each pitcher allowed nine hits in a southpaw battle that set a new record for length in the league this year. Harshman, who struck out 12 men, now has pitched 28 consecutive scoreless innings. He walked seven, most of them in the late innings. Aber walked only three and struck out eight.

The game fell two innings short of matching the major league record for long 1-0 contests, with two such 18-inning marathons on record in both the National and American Leagues. Oddly enough, the White Sox figured in both of the American League affairs, losing to Washington each time.

The Tigers filled the bases with one out in the second on a walk to Walt Dropo and singles by Kaline and Red Wilson, but Harshman disposed of both Frank Bolling and Aber on strikes.

Harshman Gives Thrill

Harshman gave the 9,487 fans a thrill in the ninth when he hit a tremendous drive to right center with a man on base, but Kaline plucked it off the wall.

Mellon Is Among 150 Entries In All-America Soap Box Derby

National Event Is Set Sunday At Akron, Ohio

Jimmy Starts In 32nd Heat; 60,000 To See Finals Set For 4 P. M.

(Special To The News)

AKRON, Ohio, Aug. 13—Jimmy Mellon weighs only 83 pounds, but he'll be toting a man-sized responsibility on his 13-year-old shoulders when he whisks down world-famous derby downs tomorrow, carrying with him Cumberland's hopes in the all-American soap box derby.

The youngster from McCoole, third brother in his family to compete in the All-American as a Cumberland champion, is slated to take the starting line in a three-car race, 32nd heat on the day's program. He'll be racing in the center lane, while flanking him will be Brenton Sorlien, 15, of Fargo, N. D. and George Perkins, 11, of Petersburg, Va.

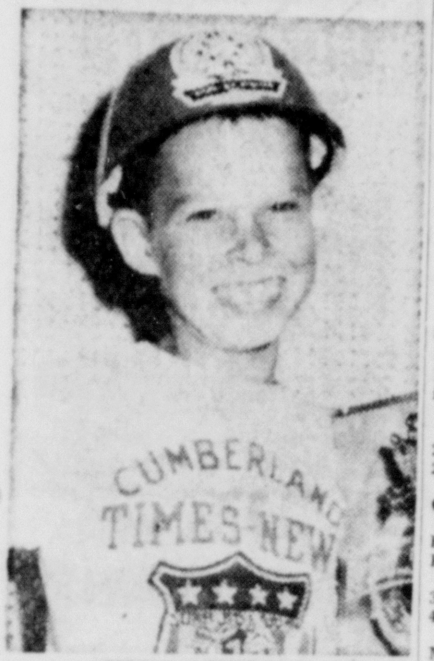
Mellon Makes Trial Run

Mellon passed his inspection yesterday with flying colors. He has his car weighed 233 pounds and unofficial timers had him negotiating the Derby Downs course in 28 seconds flat during his trial run.

Tomorrow's Derby is scheduled to get under way at 2 p. m., following the traditional pre-race parade at 1 o'clock. Clear and cool predicted, although the weatherman says there is an outside chance of widely scattered showers in late afternoon. And a crowd of 60,000 is anticipated for classic.

Celebrities Take Part

Movie and television celebrities who will take part in Sunday's big program at Derby Downs are to be formally introduced here today.



JIMMY MELLON

Robert Cummings is scheduled to arrive at 2 p. m. Jack Carson and his wife, Lola Albright at 2:30 p. m., and Bud Abbott and Lou Costello at 3 p. m. They will visit the 150 champions at Camp Derbytown today and all will take part in the big parade tomorrow.

Abbott and Costello usually do everything as a team, but tomorrow the chubby Costello will carry "all the weight" in the Oil Can Trophy Race. Costello will compete against Carson and Cummings, while Abbott waves the green flag at the finish line to signify the start of the race.

Finals of the derby will be broadcast over a nation-wide CBS hookup, starting at 4 p. m.

Mellon's Parents Arrive

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mellon parents of Cumberland's Derby hope, arrived in Akron yesterday and saw their son take his trial run. Accompanying them was another son, Ricardo, Cumberland champ in 1951. All three will be in the stands for tomorrow's race.

Ernesto, first of three Mellons to cop the Cumberland championship in 1950, was unable to make the trip.

Purses Total $104,000

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Aug. 13—Purses totaling $104,000 will be distributed to horsemen during the 10-day race meeting of the Hagerstown Fair Association, which opens Wednesday, August 18, at 2:15 p. m., daylight saving time.

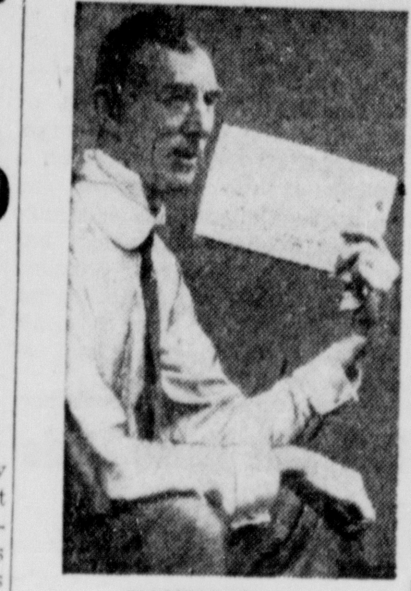
THE PHILADELPHIA STORY IS A STORY OF MR. MACK



FAMILIAR dugout pose.

HOME of the Athletics.

WITH John McGraw, Giants' manager, in 1912.

JIMMY FOXX was one of his greatest batters.

BOWING OUT in 1950 with Jimmy Dykes becoming manager.

ON DECEMBER 22, 1862, at East Brookfield, Mass., Cornelius McGillicuddy was born, the third son of Michael and Mary McKillop McGillicuddy. The boy became a baseball player, after first working in a cotton mill and learning the trade of a shoemaker. After several years as a player, he turned to managing and then, in 1900, established the "Athletics" to represent Philadelphia in the new American league. He became manager of the "Athletics" in 1901. That was the early story of Mr. Connie Mack, the "grand old man" of baseball. The middle chapters of the story of Connie Mack and his Athletics are inspiring reading for they feature success. The final chapters are being written and give the saga an unhappy ending. The once-proud Athletics face dark days as the club, without a pennant since 1931, dies on its feet. The House of Mack crumbles although efforts are being made to save it. (International)

Griffith Opposes Shift Of A's To Kansas City

By HERB ALTSCHULL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—The Washington Senators today came out against the proposed shift of the Philadelphia Athletics' franchise to Kansas City. Calvin Griffith, the Senators' executive vice president, said he would vote against any such move.

Three adverse votes by American League clubs would veto a shift of the franchise to Kansas City.

Griffith said things haven't advanced far enough yet for him to say whether he would take part in an active campaign to halt the move, but the indication was he wouldn't give up without a fight.

It's all because the St. Louis Browns have moved to Baltimore. As things stand now, Baltimore is a "western" club and rarely has home dates when Washington is playing at home.

If Philadelphia's franchise went to Kansas City, Baltimore in all likelihood would become an "eastern" club and would be playing half its home games when Washington also was at home.

Baltimore is only 40 miles from Washington.

"There just aren't enough people in this area to support two teams," Griffith said.

It's a good bet that the Baltimore ownership also would vote against the shift to Kansas City. So it would be necessary to line up only one more adverse vote to defeat the proposed shift.

Griffith said he wouldn't like to see the A's move out of Philadelphia at all. But he added that this doesn't mean he wouldn't give his approval to a franchise shift to some city other than Kansas City.

He suggested Toronto as a good possibility.

Grove To Hurl In Hall Of Fame Contest Today

Stars Of Yesteryear To Play In New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (AP)—Twenty of the greatest stars ever developed in baseball will pair off in a special Hall of Fame game at Yankee Stadium tomorrow.

Lefty Grove

Eight former big league managers will be included in the lineups under the direction of Connie Mack and Joe McCarthy.

George Weiss, general manager of the Yankees, said the players will be divided into American and National League teams for a short game but the length won't be decided until all of the stars are assembled. Game time is 1 p.m. (EST).

Weiss added that nobody would be asked to play who didn't feel up to it. He said tentative lineups shape up like this:

National League — Bill Terry, 1B; Rogers Hornsby, 2B; Frank Frisch, SS; Pie Traynor, 3B; Hank Greenberg, LF; Paul Waner, CF; Mel Ott, RF; Gabby Hartnett, C; Carl Hubbell and Dazzy Vance, pitchers.

Central Tossers Top Stringtown

Win Opening Contest In Playoffs, 6 To 3

Central Quick Lunch defeated Stringtown by the score of 6-3 yesterday at Corriganville in the opening game of the playoff semi-finals in the County Softball League.

The winners collected 11 hits, six of which were shared by Russ Robertson, Charley Crabtree and Stanley Leasure. Both of Robertson's blows were two-baggers.

Ed Decker, a nine-game winner during the regular season, kept Stringtown's seven hits well spaced. J. Gauss accounted for three of the safeties, a triple, double and single and J. Sager had two one-base wallops to his credit.

The second game of the best-of-three series between Stringtown and Central Quick Lunch is scheduled for Wednesday at Stringtown.

Potomac Valley leads in the other semi-final series, having won the opener from Corriganville, 10-0. These teams collide again Tuesday at Corriganville. Yesterday's score:

Chicago Sox Beat Tigers In 16th, 1-0

Harshman Beats Aber On Minoso's Triple

CHICAGO, Aug. 13 (AP)—Minnie Minoso's triple, scoring Nellie Fox from first base in the 16th inning, broke up a brilliant pitching duel between Jack Harshman and Al Aber and gave the Chicago White Sox a 1-0 victory over the Detroit Tigers today.

Chico Carrasquel opened the home 16th with a single to left, the eighth hit off Aber. Fox attempted to sacrifice but forced Carrasquel. Minoso then sliced a drive down the right field line and Fox raced home to end the three hour and 50 minute marathon.

Claim Usher Interfered

The Tigers argued that an usher, stationed in foul territory to retrieve foul balls, had interfered with outfielder Al Kaline, but the umpires couldn't see it that way. They contended the usher had gotten up from his chair and made a move toward the ball but did not touch it or interfere with Kaline.

Each pitcher allowed nine hits in a southpaw battle that set a new record for length in the league this year. Harshman, who struck out 12 men, now has pitched 28 consecutive scoreless innings. He walked seven, most of them in the late innings. Aber walked only three and struck out eight.

The game fell two innings short of matching the major league record for long 1-0 contests, with two such 18-inning marathons on record in both the National and American Leagues. Oddly enough, the White Sox figured in both of the American League affairs, losing to Washington each time.

The Tigers filled the bases with one out in the second on a walk to Walt Dropo and singles by Kaline and Red Wilson, but Harshman disposed of both Frank Bolling and Aber on strikes.

Harshman Gives Thrill

Harshman gave the 9,487 fans a thrill in the ninth when he hit a tremendous drive to right center with a man on base, but Kaline plucked it off the wall.

Board To Discontinue Assessment Review

A resolution was passed yesterday by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners by which the board will discontinue the practice of sitting as a Board of Assessment Review during the balance of this year and in 1955, as a result of a ruling by the attorney general of Maryland.

The resolution, in part, follows:

"In accordance with the provisions of Section 242 of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, the county commissioners sit as a Board of Assessment Review and as such, review and examine assessments recommended to them by the local assessors, for which said services they receive the sum of $10 per diem.

"The county commissioners concluded in 1953 the second five-year cycle of assessments provided for by Chapter 717 of the Laws of 1943.

Three-Year Cycle

"The commissioners have been advised that at the present time the method of assessment being followed in Maryland is the three-year cycle of assessments enacted into law by Chapter 34 of the Acts of 1952 and that no new assessment except for new, altered, remodeled or previously unassessed property, can be placed on the tax rolls before January 1, 1957 unless the reassessment of the entire County shall have been completed prior thereto.

"The county commissioners have also been advised that the effect of the enactment of Chapter 69 of the Acts of 1954, providing for reassessment of all property in each county on an annual basis will be that reassessments made in the years 1954, 1955 and 1956 may not be placed upon the tax rolls until January 1, 1957.

"The county commissioners have been further advised that the Attorney General of Maryland has ruled that notices of new appraisals of property now being made need not be sent to the property owners prior to the time of assessment, which appears to be January 1, 1957, and that no notices need be sent to a property owner if no change is to be made in his assessment.

Cost Owners Time, Money

"The county commissioners find that the sending of of such notices has occasioned for the property owners certain expense and loss of time in appearing before the board in connection therewith, and there is actually no necessity in the years 1954 or 1955 for either the notices or review hearings."

It was resolved that during the years 1954 and 1955 or until such time as the same shall become necessary, no notices of reappraisal of property, except for new, altered, remodeled or previously unassessed property, shall be made to the property owners in Allegany County, unless the reassessment of all property in the county shall previously have been concluded, but that such notices shall be sent to the property owners during the year 1956 as notices of proposed new assessments for the tax year beginning January 1, 1957.

It was also decided that during 1954 and 1955, or until such time as the same shall become necessary, the county commissioners will discontinue the practice of sitting as a Board of Assessment Review, in that it now appears that such hearings will be unnecessary until 1956, and the board's action will result in the conservation of public funds.

Pennsylvania Bankers To Hear Naughton

The Pennsylvania Bankers Association has announced that Joseph M. Naughton, president of the Second National Bank of Cumberland, will lecture on "Bank Management" at its annual Banking School.

Sessions will begin August 23 at Penn State University with bank officers from institutions throughout the state enrolled as students in the one week course.

Naughton, who is presently a member of the faculty of the American Bankers Association's Graduate School of Banking, has also been a lecturer at the Carolina Banking Conference at Chapel Hill, and at the West Virginia Bankers Association's School at Jacksons Mill.

Admitted To Probate

The will of Mrs. Elizabeth Mortzfeldt, 85, of 114 Reynolds Street, who died last Saturday in Memorial Hospital, was admitted to probate yesterday in Orphans Court.

Board To Discontinue Assessment Review

A resolution was passed yesterday by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners by which the board will discontinue the practice of sitting as a Board of Assessment Review during the balance of this year and in 1955, as a result of a ruling by the attorney general of Maryland.

The resolution, in part, follows: "In accordance with the provisions of Section 242 of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, the county commissioners sit as a Board of Assessment Review and as such, review and examine assessments recommended to them by the local assessors, for which said services they receive the sum of $10 per diem.

"The county commissioners concluded in 1953 the second five-year cycle of assessments provided for by Chapter 717 of the Laws of 1943.

Three-Year Cycle

"The commissioners have been advised that at the present time the method of assessment being followed in Maryland is the three-year cycle of assessments enacted into law by Chapter 34 of the Acts of 1952 and that no new assessment except for new, altered, remodeled or previously unassessed property, can be placed on the tax rolls before January 1, 1957 unless the reassessment of the entire County shall have been completed prior thereto.

"The county commissioners have also been advised that the effect of the enactment of Chapter 69 of the Acts of 1954, providing for reassessment of all property in each county on an annual basis will be that reassessments made in the years 1954, 1955 and 1956 may not be placed upon the tax rolls until January 1, 1957.

"The county commissioners have been further advised that the Attorney General of Maryland has ruled that notices of new appraisals of property now being made need not be sent to the property owners prior to the time of assessment, which appears to be January 1, 1957, and that no notices need be sent to a property owner if no change is to be made in his assessment.

Cost Owners Time, Money

"The county commissioners find that the sending of of such notices has occasioned for the property owners certain expense and loss of time in appearing before the board in connection therewith, and there is actually no necessity in the years 1954 or 1955 for either the notices or review hearings."

It was resolved that during the years 1954 and 1955 or until such time as the same shall become necessary, no notices of reappraisal of property, except for new, altered, remodeled or previously unassessed property, shall be made to the property owners in Allegany County, unless the reassessment of all property in the county shall previously have been concluded, but that such notices shall be sent to the property owners during the year 1956 as notices of proposed new assessments for the tax year beginning January 1, 1957.

It was also decided that during 1954 and 1955, or until such time as the same shall become necessary, the county commissioners will discontinue the practice of sitting as a Board of Assessment Review, in that it now appears that such hearings will be unnecessary until 1956, and the board's action will result in the conservation of public funds.

Civitan Club Members To Attend Meeting

Three members of the Cumberland Civitan Club will attend the summer council meeting of the Chesapeake District of the organization tomorrow and Sunday at the Kenwood Country Club, Bethesda.

They are W. L. McIntosh, president; James Robertson, past president, and S. Albert Wenner. The international president of Civitan, Roy Abagnale, of Springfield, Mass., will be honored guest at the program.

The council meeting will be devoted to an expansion program for the Chesapeake District.

Pennsylvania Bankers To Hear Naughton

The Pennsylvania Bankers Association has announced that Joseph M. Naughton, president of the Second National Bank of Cumberland, will lecture on "Bank Management" at its annual Banking School.

Sessions will begin August 23 at Penn State University with bank officers from institutions throughout the state enrolled as students in the one week course.

Naughton, who is presently a member of the faculty of the American Bankers Association's Graduate School of Banking, has also been a lecturer at the Carolina Banking Conference at Chapel Hill, and at the West Virginia Bankers Association's School at Jacksons Mill.

Admitted To Probate

The will of Mrs. Elizabeth Mortzfeldt, 85, of 114 Reynolds Street, who died last Saturday in Memorial Hospital, was admitted to probate yesterday in Orphans Court.

A daughter, Mrs. Bertha M. Dreyer, 119 Maplewood Lane, was named executrix. The estate was left to the children of the deceased.

Daily Bridge Lesson

by Shepard Barclay

LEADS MAY DIRECT YOU

YOUR way of playing for the contract frequently depends upon what the defenders lead against you. In the case of a suit contract, if there has been no lead of a trump, you may have a neat cross-ruff available. If, however, a trump had been led, and you have enough entries available and undisturbed from your hand to the dummy, or vice versa, you may find it more advisable to take out trumps and endeavor to get your remaining tricks through establishing a side suit.

South:

(Dealer: East. Both sides vulnerable.)

East	South	West	North
Pass	Pass	Pass	1 ♥
Pass	1 ♠	Pass	2 ♣
Pass	2 ♦	Pass	3 ♣
Pass	3 ♦	Pass	3 ♠
Pass	4 ♠

Bidding which varied a good deal put most Souths of a tournament into that same 4-Spades contract. The play was far from uniform.

Where the heart Q was led, the A won and sometimes a cross-ruff effort was then launched by leading the diamond K to the A. When East now returned his heart K, South's ruff launched a zig-zag during which two diamonds were ruffed in dummy, two hearts in his own hand, three high trumps were scored plus the heart A and two high clubs to make the needed ten total.

Where East, on winning with the diamond A, returned a trump, a declarer who persisted in trying to score by ruffs could trump only one diamond in dummy, so got only nine tricks.

A keener cardsman, getting an opening trump lead, abandoned ruffing plans. He won that trump trick in dummy, took three more rounds of trumps, scored the club A and K, felling the Q, next the J, ruffed the club 5 with his last trump, returned to dummy via the heart A and then cashed the club 6 for his tenth trick. That gave him five tricks with trumps, four with clubs and the heart A, gladly conceding the rest.

• • •

Your Week-end Question

If your partner bids one suit, next a lower-ranking one and eventually rebids the second one, how many cards at least is he showing in each? And what should you do if you have the same number of cards in each and no reason to bid then a suit of your own or No Trumps?

Daily Bridge Lesson

by Shepard Barclay

LEADS MAY DIRECT YOU

YOUR way of playing for the contract frequently depends upon what the defenders lead against you. In the case of a suit contract, if there has been no lead of a trump, you may have a neat cross-ruff available. If, however, a trump had been led, and you have enough entries available and undisturbed from your hand to the dummy, or vice versa, you may find it more advisable to take out trumps and endeavor to get your remaining tricks through establishing a side suit.

♠ Q 7
♦ K
♣ A K J 6 5

West		East
♠ 4 3 ♥ Q J 8 4 ♦ 10 8 7 ♣ 10 8 7 3	N W E S	♠ 10 9 8 6 ♥ K 6 3 ♦ A Q 9 3 ♣ Q 4

♠ A K J 5 2
♥ 10
♦ J 6 5 4 2
♣ 9 2

(Dealer: East. Both sides vulnerable.)

East	South	West	North
Pass	Pass	Pass	1 ♥
Pass	1 ♠	Pass	2 ♣
Pass	2 ♦	Pass	3 ♣
Pass	3 ♦	Pass	3 ♠
Pass	4 ♠

Bidding which varied a good deal put most Souths of a tournament into that same 4-Spades contract. The play was far from uniform.

Where the heart Q was led, the A won and sometimes a cross-ruff effort was then launched by leading the diamond K to the A. When East now returned his heart K, South's ruff launched a zig-zag during which two diamonds were ruffed in dummy, two hearts in his own hand, three high trumps were scored plus the heart A and two high clubs to make the needed ten total.

Where East, on winning with the diamond A, returned a trump, a declarer who persisted in trying to score by ruffs could trump only one diamond in dummy, so got only nine tricks.

A keener cardsman, getting an opening trump lead, abandoned ruffing plans. He won that trump trick in dummy, took three more rounds of trumps, scored the club A and K, felling the Q, next the J, ruffed the club 5 with his last trump, returned to dummy via the heart A and then cashed the club 6 for his tenth trick. That gave him five tricks with trumps, four with clubs and the heart A, gladly conceding the rest.

Your Week-end Question

If your partner bids one suit, next a lower-ranking one and eventually rebids the second one, how many cards at least is he showing in each? And what should you do if you have the same number of cards in each and no reason to bid then a suit of your own or No Trumps?

1948 BUICK SUPER SEDAN
We have in our stock an exceptionally clean '48 Buick Super 4 door sedan. The high sheen of the original black paint shows what wonderful care and a garage will do for an automobile. This car has only been driven 7,500 miles a year and has original upholstery in excellent condition. The 8 tube radio and large heater and defroster are original GM equipment. There are also directional lights, undercoating, windshield washer, back lights, sun visors and air-foam seats, and the tires have over 10,000 miles of wear in them. Ask to see this one, as it will be kept garaged $575

1948 BUICK SUPER SEDAN We have in our stock an exceptionally clean '48 Buick Super 4 door sedan. The high sheen of the original black paint shows what wonderful care and a garage will do for an automobile. This car has only been driven 7,500 miles a year and has original upholstery in excellent condition. The 8 tube radio and large heater and defroster are original GM equipment. There are also directional lights, undercoating, windshield washer, back lights, sun visors and airfoam seats, and the tires have over 10,000 miles of wear in them. Ask to see this one, as it will be kept garaged $575

Ryan Will Attend Demo Conference In Washington

Edward J. Ryan, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Sixth District, will attend a conference Monday in Democratic National Headquarters in Washington with other Democratic Congressional candidates.

Ryan said the session will be to go over the programs to be endorsed by the Democrats in the November general election.

Following that, strategy for the party aspirants will be established by the Democratic National Committee and all the candidates, he pointed out.

Next Tuesday night Ryan, Frostburg and Cumberland attorney, will attend a meeting of the Montgomery County Democratic leaders at Olney Inn.

Ryan will sit down with this group to sum up the political situation in Montgomery County where many Sixth District elections have been won or lost.

Saturday, August 21, the Democratic candidate will attend a Democratic meeting at Poolesville in Montgomery County.

This Sunday, Ryan will be in Hagerstown to attend the picnic of the new Democratic Club of Ward Four, Hagerstown, at the North American Rod and Gun Club grounds.

Other Democratic candidates selected in the June primary have been invited by the new club to the affair.

While Ryan heads east Sunday to campaign, his opponent, Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde of Bethesda, will be in the local attorney's home section. Sunday, the Montgomery countian will attend the picnic of Barton Hose Company 1 at Merrill's Bridge, Garrett county.

Commissioners Reject Single Roof Repair Bid

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday rejected the single bid received on the reroofing of Sylvan Retreat, the county mental institution, and voted to readvertise for bids.

A bid of $6,226 to furnish a roof with a 10-year guarantee and $8,125 for a roof with a 20-year guaranteed was submitted Tuesday by the George Construction Company.

Four or five other firms obtained specifications for the project but declined to bid.

This led the commissioners to make inquiry of a number of roofers to determine why they decided against bidding. The concensus was that the type of roof called for in the specifications was not suitable and would not be attractive.

The roofers contacted said a shingle type roof would be attractive and also provide the necessary protection to the building. The bid rejected specified a rolled roof. The present roof, of slate shingles, is more than 50 years old and in a bad condition.

Gorman E. Getty, attorney to the board, suggested the single bid received be rejected and specifications redrawn on the basis of the recommendations of the roofers who were contacted pertaining to the project.

The roof of the institution is pointed and shingles of a proper color would do much to improve the appearance of the structure, according to views of the roofers.

Woman Hurt In Two-Car Wreck

Miss Lona Marple, 44, of Short Gap, W. Va., suffered minor face injuries in a two-car mishap Thursday on the Short Gap road near the Pinto road intersection.

Miss Marple was riding in an auto driven by Miss Ruth Gilliam, 27, which was struck by another car driven by Lewis Waukeleripz, 49, of Cumberland.

Waukeleripz was charged by Trooper Donald G. Peters of the West Virginia State Police at Keyser with failing to give the right of way. Damage was estimated at $550.

More Than 200 Cases Of Fraud In Housing Probe

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—Warren Olney III, the government's chief criminal prosecutor, said today that more than 200 cases involving alleged fraud, collusion or other irregularities in the housing field are now "in various stages of investigation" by federal attorneys throughout the country.

In a letter to Sen. Byrd (D-Va), Olney said that since Jan. 1, 1954, 23 convictions and 34 indictments have been obtained in the Justice Department's attack on housing scandals.

Most of these, he told Byrd, stem from misuse of the home repair loan program. The Federal Housing Administration insures commercial loans for home repair and modernization up to $2,500. Senate investigators have been told that "gyp artists" have milked millions of dollars from unsuspecting home owners for shoddy repairs—or in some cases for no repairs at all.

Indictments and convictions, ranging across the nation, covered such offenses as "forged documents," "interstate transportation of stolen monies in connection with home improvement transactions", the practice of "high pressure sales methods and falsified loan documents" and the use of the home repair loan program "as a means of obtaining a down payment for the purchase of automobiles."

The Senate Banking Committee, headed by Sen. Capehart (R-Ind), and Byrd's Joint Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Expenditures have been probing housing irregularities since last April.

The Banking Committee investigation centered on home repair loans and so-called "windfall" profits by builders of apartment projects constructed with loans insured by the FHA. These profits resulted from loans in excess of construction costs.

Olney was silent on the question of possible prosecutions of present and former FHA officials, except to say that 20 cases are now "pending" which include "matters arising as a result of the official and personal conduct of FHA officials and employes . . ."

More than a dozen high ranking FHA officials have been ousted, suspended or forced into retirement since last April 12, when the White House announced its own investigation of housing irregularities.

Auxiliary To Meet

FROSTBURG—The Young Men's Republican Club Auxiliary will meet Thursday, August 19, in the club rooms. Following the meeting a wiener roast will be held at the Frostburg swimming pool for members and friends. Members have been asked to bring their own food. Refreshments will be served.

Ryan Will Attend Demo Conference In Washington

Edward J. Ryan, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Sixth District, will attend a conference Monday in Democratic National Headquarters in Washington with other Democratic Congressional candidates.

Ryan said the session will be to go over the programs to be endorsed by the Democrats in the November general election.

Following that, strategy for the party aspirants will be established by the Democratic National Committee and all the candidates, he pointed out.

Next Tuesday night Ryan, Frostburg and Cumberland attorney, will attend a meeting of the Montgomery County Democratic leaders at Olney Inn.

Ryan will sit down with this group to sum up the political situation in Montgomery County where many Sixth District elections have been won or lost.

Saturday, August 21, the Democratic candidate will attend a Democratic meeting at Poolesville in Montgomery County.

This Sunday, Ryan will be in Hagerstown to attend the picnic of the new Democratic Club of Ward Four, Hagerstown, at the North American Rod and Gun Club grounds.

Other Democratic candidates selected in the June primary have been invited by the new club to the affair.

While Ryan heads east Sunday to campaign, his opponent, Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde of Bethesda, will be in the local attorney's home section. Sunday, the Montgomery countian will attend the picnic of Barton Hose Company 1 at Merrill's Bridge, Garrett county.

Commissioners Reject Single Roof Repair Bid

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday rejected the single bid received on the reroofing of Sylvan Retreat, the county mental institution, and voted to readvertise for bids.

A bid of $6,226 to furnish a roof with a 10-year guarantee and $8,125 for a roof with a 20-year guaranteed was submitted Tuesday by the George Construction Company.

Four or five other firms obtained specifications for the project but declined to bid.

This led the commissioners to make inquiry of a number of roofers to determine why they decided against bidding. The concensus was that the type of roof called for in the specifications was not suitable and would not be attractive.

The roofers contacted said a shingle type roof would be attractive and also provide the necessary protection to the building. The bid rejected specified a rolled roof. The present roof, of slate shingles, is more than 50 years old and in a bad condition.

Gorman E. Getty, attorney to the board, suggested the single bid received be rejected and specifications redrawn on the basis of the recommendations of the roofers who were contacted pertaining to the project.

The roof of the institution is pointed and shingles of a proper color would do much to improve the appearance of the structure, according to views of the roofers.

Woman Hurt In Two-Car Wreck

Miss Lona Marple, 44, of Short Gap, W. Va., suffered minor face injuries in a two-car mishap Thursday on the Short Gap road near the Pinto road intersection.

Miss Marple was riding in an auto driven by Miss Ruth Gilliam, 27, which was struck by another car driven by Lewis Waukeleripz, 49, of Cumberland.

Waukeleripz was charged by Trooper Donald G. Peters of the West Virginia State Police at Keyser with failing to give the right of way. Damage was estimated at $550.

More Than 200 Cases Of Fraud In Housing Probe

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (AP)—Warren Olney III, the government's chief criminal prosecutor, said today that more than 200 cases involving alleged fraud, collusion or other irregularities in the housing field are now "in various stages of investigation" by federal attorneys throughout the country.

In a letter to Sen. Byrd (D-Va), Olney said that since Jan. 1, 1954, 23 convictions and 34 indictments have been obtained in the Justice Department's attack on housing scandals.

Most of these, he told Byrd, stem from misuse of the home repair loan program. The Federal Housing Administration insures commercial loans for home repair and modernization up to $2,500. Senate investigators have been told that "gyp artists" have milked millions of dollars from unsuspecting home owners for shoddy repairs—or in some cases for no repairs at all.

Indictments and convictions, ranging across the nation, covered such offenses as "forged documents," "interstate transportation of stolen monies in connection with home improvement transactions", the practice of "high pressure sales methods and falsified loan documents" and the use of the home repair loan program "as a means of obtaining a down payment for the purchase of automobiles."

The Senate Banking Committee, headed by Sen. Capehart (R-Ind), and Byrd's Joint Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Expenditures have been probing housing irregularities since last April.

The Banking Committee investigation centered on home repair loans and so-called "windfall" profits by builders of apartment projects constructed with loans insured by the FHA. These profits resulted from loans in excess of construction costs.

Olney was silent on the question of possible prosecutions of present and former FHA officials, except to say that 20 cases are now "pending" which include "matters arising as a result of the official and personal conduct of FHA officials and employes . . ."

More than a dozen high ranking FHA officials have been ousted, suspended or forced into retirement since last April 12, when the White House announced its own investigation of housing irregularities.

City Playground Parade Draws 15,000 Crowd

Thousand Children Take Part In Event

Crowds estimated at up to 15,000 lined streets in the downtown area last night to watch the first annual Intra-City Playground Parade.

The colorful spectacle included floats, cars bearing playground queens and their courts, and marching units from each of the city's 16 playgrounds.

Virginia Avenue Playground and Columbia Street Playground shared honors for the best-appearing float in the hour-long parade.

Both play centers entered beautifully decorated floats which drew enthusiastic applause from the crowds.

The Virginia Avenue float depicted a "Tom Thumb Wedding" and Columbia Street, "Sleeping Beauty." The play centers will share a $25 prize.

Snow White Wins Prize

Mapleside Playground won first place for the float which best depicted its theme, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" and Gephart Playground's float, "Comic Strip Characters" won honorable mention.

Lamont Street Playground won first prize for the best marching unit. The marchers represented the crowd which accompanied the play center's float, "The Greatest Fight of the Century."

Honorable mention for marching units went to the youthful fishermen who accompanied the North End Playground's float, "Tom Sawyer."

Carver Playground won first prize of $25 for the playground with the highest number of registrants in the line of march—100 per cent.

Judges were Lewyn C. Davis, chairman; Albert S. Paye, Judge George Henderson, members, and Mrs. Florence Yankelevitz, secretary of the City Recreation Board.

1,500 In Parade

Some 1,500 of the 2,500 children registered at the play centers participated in the parade.

Music was provided by three musical units, the Drum and Bugle Corps of Fulton Myers Post, American Legion; the Cumberland Concert Band, and a playground band.

Robert E. Pence, city recreation director, said an attempt will be made next year to secure additional marching bands to accompany the children.

Crowds began to line downtown streets long before the parade got under way, and the entire parade route was crowded by 7:30 o'clock when the first unit left the State Armory.

Officials said the judges had a difficult time selecting the winning floats because all showed so much originality and enthusiastic work that "they were all winners."

Floats Elaborate

Pence said many of the floats turned into community projects, as parents of the children pitched in and helped on the difficult tasks.

Typical of the work which went into the preparation of the floats was the Centre Street entry. Children at that play center used 15,000 paper napkins in preparing their float, "The Farmer in the Dell."

One of the features of the parade was the appearance of the Ridgeleyettes, who preceded the Pennsylvania Avenue Playground unit, as an escort for Miss Marian Thrasher, who was named Queen of the parade.

The float, "Mistress Mary" was decorated entirely by children of the play center.

Meter Change Slated Soon

Police Commissioner William V. Keegan said yesterday that parts needed to lengthen the time on the city's penny parking meters are being shipped here.

He said a representative of the Duncan Automatic parking meter firm said the devices can be changed within the next few weeks.

The meters now provide 12 minutes of parking time for a penny. They will be modified to allow 30 minutes for a nickel.

Commissioner Keegan said the city has 47 of the meters which are placed on streets where the city must keep traffic moving.

Local 26 Votes Aid To Striking Rubber Workers

A resolution calling for $2 a week contributions from members to the URCLPWA's Strike and Defense fund has been adopted by members of Kelly Local 26, Rubber Workers Union (CIO).

William G. Rice, president, said the resolution calling for voluntary contributions was passed unanimously at a meeting Thursday night.

The action was taken in line with a resolution of the union's General Executive Board asking financial aid from locals which are not involved in the pattern-setting strike against the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company.

Members of 10 locals in Goodyear plants went on strike July 7, charging the company's offer of five cents an hour wage increase was inadequate.

The strike spread yesterday as the contract deadline passed for workers in Firestone Tire and Rubber Company plants.

These or other workers called out would be eligible for strike benefits under the terms of the resolution.

Wage talks between Local 26 and the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company were recessed several weeks ago with the understanding that workers here will get the pattern which is being set up in Big 4 negotiations.

Equity Suit Filed

An equity suit was filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court. The bill of complaint was titled Helen M. Folsom vs. James H. Folsom.

Concert Band's Program Sunday Features Overture

A Manx Overture, written by Haydn Wood, will be one of the feature selections at the concert of the Cumberland Municipal Concert Band at the Constitution Park Amphitheatre at 8:30 p. m. Sunday.

The overture is one of several Manx works written by Wood. It is the outcome of his long association with the Isle of Man. The themes are original, though the composer has endeavored to imbue them with a strong Manx flavor. The opening section is of a broad nature and leads up to a lively movement which forms the principal motif of the work. This is followed by a plaintive little melody which is used as the basis of a short fugue. The work ends brilliantly.

W. Valgene Routch, the band director, has again arranged to have Miss Josephine Kompanek, soprano soloist, sing with the band. She will sing Gounod's "O Divine Redeemer."

Frank Munson will be the trumpet soloist during the presentation of Morton Gould's "Pavanne." Joseph Trenton will be the baritone horn soloist for "Trees" by Oscar Rasbach.

Other selections in the early portion of the concert include "March Religioso" by W. P. Chambers; "Men of Ohio," a march by Henry Fillmore; Joseph McCarthy's "Alice Blue Gown;" "March of the Toys" by Victor Herbert, and "March of the Slide Trombones" by Raymond Scott.

Also on the program are "My Hero" by Oscar Strauss; "Manhattan Beach" a march by John Philip Sousa; "Begin The Beguine" by Cole Porter; "New Colonial March" by R. B. Hall and finally, the National Anthem.

More Than Half Of Queen Annes Votes Challenged

CENTREVILLE, Aug. 13 (AP) — Attorneys for H. C. Byrd and George P. Mahoney challenged more than half of the ballots they examined today as the long battle for the Democratic nomination for governor came back to Queen Annes County.

Together, the opposing lawyers challenged 395 of the 790 paper ballots they went over.

Attorneys for Byrd, apparent winner of the nomination in the primary election June 28, found something to complain about on 284 Mahoney ballots.

Representatives of Mahoney challenged 111 ballots cast for Byrd.

When they called it quits for the day, the lawyers had looked at about 720 of the 4,000 ballots cast in the county.

At stake were the county's three nominating votes in the Democratic State Convention and Mahoney needed them to upset the result of the primary, in which Byrd got 80 unit votes and Mahoney 72.

Mahoney also needs the four unit votes in Talbot County, where Chief Judge William R. Horney of the Second Judicial Circuit today began his personal review of 289 ballots challenged there.

Today's action here was not actually a recount.

When the Queen Annes election supervisors made their recount they did not keep separate the ballots challenged by opposing attorneys.

Mahoney now contends in a court test the election supervisors "arbitrarily and capriciously" counted more than 700 ballots they should have thrown out. In order to bring the questioned ones to court, the attorneys now have to toil again through the 4,000 votes cast in the county.

Today's challenges were based again on unorthodox marks on the ballots—corruptions of the legal "X" voters are supposed to put in the blocks in front of the candidates' names, dots, holes, tears.

Phone Union Vetoes Offer

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 13 (AP)—A union spokesman said today a Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. proposal for a one-year extension of its present wage contract was turned down on the union side of the bargaining table.

The spokesman for the CIO Communications Workers of America said the union made a counter-request for hospitalization, a minimum pension of $100 a month and shorter wage progression schedules.

The CWA reply brought a temporary halt to negotiations for a new contract which began here yesterday. The present contract, covering about 4,000 C. and P. employes in West Virginia, expires Sept. 12.

The company announced yesterday its proposal for extending the present agreement. The proposal was accompanied by a statement citing lower corporate and individual earnings and other economic factors.

Bedford Boy Falls From Moving Car

A three-year-old boy was seriously injured early last night when he tumbled from his father's car on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Fred Wilfong of Bedford, Pa., said he was driving west on the Turnpike between Sideling and Rays Hill tunnels when the accident happened at about 6 p. m. (EDT).

Wilfong said his son, Fred Jr., accidentally opened the door and fell onto the roadway. The driver of the car behind managed to stop in time to avoid hitting the child, and drove him the 23 miles to Bedford Valley Hospital.

Attaches at the hospital said the boy was in serious condition late last night.

His injuries included a possible skull fracture, rib fractures, multiple contusions and abrasions of the forehead, and of both arms and legs, a large laceration of the forehead, and multiple lacerations of the back and scalp.

The Weather

The "cool Spell" enjoyed by Cumberlanders during the past few days may be over. Yesterday's high official temperature was 79 degrees, an increase over the previous day, but still cool. The low was 48 and at 6 p. m. the relative humidity registered 43 per cent. Today's forecast calls for fair weather, with the highest temperatures between 78 and 85.

Cows Supplying Milk In State Need TB Tests

Dairymen To Be Notified Soon

All cows supplying milk for sale in Maryland must be tuberculin-tested in accordance with the rules and regulations of Federal and state authorities, according to Dr. Winter R. Frantz, city and county health officer, and J. B. Dowling, sanitarian for the health department.

The tuberculin test must be made at least once a year and at such times as the authorities designate.

The test records or official notice that the herd has been tested must be available at the Health Department. No accredited areas will be accepted after January 1955.

Health authorities here said yesterday that all dairies and milk producers for the Cumberland milkshed, whether they come from Maryland, West Virginia or Pennsylvania, will receive a notice of the test regulation next week.

The tuberculin requirement is in addition to the brucellosis test, which also was made mandatory by a regulation adopted May 21 by the State Board of Health.

Brucellosis is a costly disease in infected herds due to loss of calves and lowered milk production. The disease in humans, commonly known as undulant fever, is caused by the same germ.

The new regulation makes it compulsory for owners of beef and dairy cattle to place their herds under one of two control plans before the end of this year.

Owners choosing to have their herds placed under Plan A must have all their cattle tested by January 1, 1955, and all the infected animals must be slaughtered immediately. If cattle are placed under Plan B they must be tested by January 1, 1955, but infected cattle do not have to be removed for slaughter until December 31, 1955.

Street Oiling Crews Are In South End

Street Commissioner William H. Buchholtz reported yesterday that the street oiling program is proceeding in the South End area.

Work has been delayed as a result of rains and the need to clear city streets from the results of two severe storms which hit the city since late in June.

The commissioner said citizens are still spoiling the careful work done by the oiling crews, by removing barriers before the oiled surface has had a chance to cure.

He warned that it will not be possible for crews to come back and repair any such damage.

Property Suit Dismissal Asked Of Court Here

Deny Allegations In Equity Action

Joseph W. Lewis and Dorothy E. Lewis, his wife, 1100 Ella Avenue, through Attorney William R. Carscaden, have prepared an answer for Allegany County Circuit Court asking dismissal of an equity suit brought against them several days ago by Jerald N. Barrett and Jeannette M. Barrett, his wife, 113 Pennsylvania Avenue.

The Barretts had asked the court to declare null and void a deed which they signed in 1949 conveying property on East Mary Street to the Lewises. The Barretts contended that they thought they were signing a mortgage to secure a loan Lewis had made to Barrett so that he would not lose his property.

Deny Allegations

Denying many of the allegations of the Barretts, the respondents say that the Barretts assured Lewis that his (Barrett's) father would advance $600 toward the purchase price. It was understood and agreed, the Lewises said, that upon payment of the $600 the parties would enter into a contract of sale wherein the property would be sold by the Lewises to the Barretts for a sum equal to the amount paid for the property by Lewis.

They assert that the contract of sale was prepared but never executed because the $600 was not paid.

In another denial the respondents state that the deed was executed in the offices of Attorney F. Brooke Whiting and that thereafter Attorney Wilbur V. Wilson was requested to prepare a contract for sale of the property. The Barretts had said that Wilson prepared the deed.

Contract Prepared

The contract of sale provided for the sale of the Mary Street property for $3,890 less the $600, which was to have been the down payment. Six per cent interest also was to have been charged.

As the Barretts could not make the down payment on the property, the Lewises state, they notified the Barretts that they would have to pay $35 a month rent until they could arrange to purchase the property and pay off the respondents' investment. They paid $1,050, covering a period from May 1, 1950 to May 1, 1953, the answer states. When the Barretts asked the Lewises to consider the rental paid as a down payment, the request was refused and the Barretts thereafter ceased to pay any rental, the answer says.

Furthermore, the Lewises answer that they offered to convey the property to the complainants on numerous occasions, provided that the Barretts would pay the amount of money which the Lewises had invested in the property, together with interest thereon, plus state, county and city taxes, water rent and insurance, all of which was paid by the Lewises. Arrangements for the purchase never were made.

Not A Contract

In addition, the Lewises contend that prior to the time the Barretts vacated the property they removed the kitchen sink, electric fixtures, heat registers, spigots and parts of spigots and other fixtures which were a part of the real estate, and that Barrett has threatened to do bodily harm to Lewis.

Again in denial of an allegation, the respondents refute the complainants' contention that the deed was actually intended as a contract or instrument to secure the monies loaned.

In their answer, the Lewises aver that Attorneys F. Brooke Whiting and Wilbur V. Wilson are leading practicing attorneys of this county and that their integrity and honesty is above reproach. The papers prepared by them contained the understanding and agreement of the parties in regard to the property.

Finally, the Lewises state that the property was sold by them to bona fide purchasers August 10 for $5,200 which has been paid them in full for the property.

The Lewises ask the court to set the matter for immediate trial or require the Barrett's to file a bond in the amount of at least $5,200.

'Pirates' On River Raid Gas Station

West Virginia State Police at Romney are on the trail of a crew of "pirates" who plundered a riverside gas station and got away in two boats—stolen boats.

Trooper G. H. Phillips said the thieves broke a window to get into Odell (Ed) Buckbee's service station on State Route 28 north of Romney.

They got $35 to $40 in cash, a quantity of cigarets, candy and other loot, and left.

Phillips said the theft was discovered early yesterday. At about the same time, the two boats were reported missing. One belongs to David Gilpin, district forestry worker in Hampshire County.

Both boats had been taken from a landing near the rear of the gas station, which is along the South Branch Potomac River.

A police shore party located the boats later yesterday 1½-hours by boat downstream, near the Blue Beach section.

There was no trace of the loot or of the "pirates."

First Concrete Pour Scheduled On Flood Wall

Repairs To Bridge Piers Is Completed

The Wright Contracting Company of Columbus, Ga., is expected Monday morning to make the first pour of concrete for the flood wall which is being built on the West Side in connection with the $17,000,000 Cumberland-Ridgeley Flood Protection program.

Final adjustments of the equipment for the modern batch plant were being made yesterday by factory representatives.

The project will include the construction of some 780 feet of concrete flood wall, averaging about 17 feet high, from near the Moose Home to a point near Long Avenue and Water Street.

Forms Are In Place

Steel sheeting has been driven into the ground for some 600 feet of the area, and movable forms have been prepared. One foundation form is in place for the start of the project.

The flood wall is part of the system of concrete walls and earth levees which will be built along the Potomac River to protect Cumberland and Ridgeley from devastating floods.

Meanwhile, the E. J. Albrecht Company has completed reinforcing two piers of the Western Maryland Bridge at the site of the old Industrial Dam.

Encased In Concrete

The original piers were not set on solid rock and have suffered damage from water erosion.

Under the direction of the Corps of Engineers, the contractor drove steel piling down to solid rock around each of the piers and filled in the steel enclosed areas with solid concrete.

The contractor has also breached a coffer dam which was built in connection with the pier job, allowing the waters of Wills Creek to flow into the river.

Miss Ridgely Eliminated In State Pageant

Janet Ridgely, Cumberland's representative in the "Miss Maryland" contest Thursday night in Baltimore, failed to finish in the first three places.

Through an error, Miss Ridgely had at first been listed as a runner-up in the contest.

Miss Ridgely, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ridgely, 328 Fayette Street, performed a modern dance in the talent contest. She recently participated in a national contest at Buckeye Lake, Ohio, at which "Miss Majorette of 1954" was selected.

Winner of the "Miss Maryland" title was Phyllis Leftwich, 19-year-old blue-eyed brunette from Dundalk. She was entered as Dundalk's "Teen Queen" of Middle River.

Runnersup were Jacqueline Rew, "Queen of the Chesapeake," and Penny Nethken, "Miss English Consul," both of the Baltimore area.

Thieves 'Get Bird' From Local Lawns

Detective Lt. James E. Van is wondering who's "getting the bird" these days.

Van posted a notice to that effect at Police Headquarters when it developed that an epidemic of thefts of lawn ornaments has plagued the city for the past several days.

Most of the ornaments have been plaster replicas of birds and such. The latest thefts involved a couple of comparatively expensive flamingos.

About a dozen birds have been stolen, Van said, adding that most of the thefts have taken place in the southeast section of the city.

Attorney Says Petition Rule Is Too Strict

Carscaden Asserts Identity Only Question

William R. Carscaden yesterday took exception to rules set up by City Attorney Thomas B. Finan for counting names signed to petitions calling for a referendum on the overhead expressway program.

The local attorney, who presented the petitions to the Mayor and Council on Monday, said the ruling a petitioner has to sign his name in the same manner as it appears on the registration books "appears to be without foundation."

In his letter of instructions on the validation, Finan had pointed out "it would appear to me that the name on the petition must appear on the registration book, and if there is any variation between the name on the petition and the name on the registration book it should not be counted."

Says Laws Are Liberal

Carscaden's letter on the subject follows:

"Certain statements have appeared in the newspaper concerning the petition which was filed with Mayor Eves in regard to 2,185 voters in Cumberland requesting the City Charter be amended in order to prevent the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland entering into any contracts, etc. with the State Roads Commission in conection with the construction of the overhead bridge.

"This is certainly not a matter to be tried in the newspaper and, in my opinion, the terms and the provisions of the City Charter must be carried out. The statement that a petitioner has to sign his or her name in exactly the same manner in which it appears on the registration books in order to be counted, appears to be without foundation.

"Laws concerning referenda are liberally construed, the underlying principle being that the people are exercising a right reserved by them. There is no requirement in the Cumberland City Charter setting forth the exact manner in which a petitioner must sign his or her name. The law simply requires that a person be a qualified voter and that the voter's address should be given.

Cites Legal Opinions

"The exact question involved in this case has already been decided by certain courts. One court held that a married woman could sign her name as Mrs. John Smith, even though her name appeared on the registration books as Dorothy Smith.

"As stated by the Court 'there is nothing in the Charter provisions or in the General Law that requires a married woman to sign a petition of this nature with the same given name as was used by her at the time of registration.

"The Charter merely requires that the petition be signed by registered qualified electors and is silent as to the form the signature must take . . . . the question is simply one of identity. If reasonably satisfied by such examination that the two signatures are those of the same person, they should be approved regardless of the given name or initials that are used.'

"It should be further pointed out that even if the Mayor is not convinced of the authenticity of the signatures, he is required by law to state specific defects and shall further explain how the defects, if any, in the petition can be remedied.

"It is felt that it is necessary to send a copy of this letter to the newspapers in order to make public the contention of the petitioners since your statement was printed quite some time ago. A copy is also being sent to Mayor Eves so that the letter will become a part of the official record."

Local 26 Votes Aid To Striking Rubber Workers

A resolution calling for $2 a week contributions from members to the URCLPWA's Strike and Defense fund has been adopted by members of Kelly Local 26, Rubber Workers Union (CIO).

William G. Rice, president, said the resolution calling for voluntary contributions was passed unanimously at a meeting Thursday night.

The action was taken in line with a resolution of the union's General Executive Board asking financial aid from locals which are not involved in the pattern-setting strike against the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company.

Members of 10 locals in Goodyear plants went on strike July 7, charging the company's offer of five cents an hour wage increase was inadequate.

The strike spread yesterday as the contract deadline passed for workers in Firestone Tire and Rubber Company plants.

These or other workers called out would be eligible for strike benefits under the terms of the resolution.

Wage talks between Local 26 and the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company were recessed several weeks ago with the understanding that workers here will get the pattern which is being set up in Big 4 negotiations.

Equity Suit Filed

Concert Band's Program Sunday Features Overture

A Manx Overture, written by Haydn Wood, will be one of the feature selections at the concert of the Cumberland Municipal Concert Band at the Constitution Park Amphitheatre at 8:30 p. m. Sunday.

The overture is one of several Manx works written by Wood. It is the outcome of his long association with the Isle of Man. The themes are original, though the composer has endeavored to imbue them with a strong Manx flavor. The opening section is of a broad nature and leads up to a lively movement which forms the principal motif of the work. This is followed by a plaintive little melody which is used as the basis of a short fugue. The work ends brilliantly.

W. Valgene Routch, the band director, has again arranged to have Miss Josephine Kompanek, soprano soloist, sing with the band. She will sing Gounod's "O Divine Redeemer."

Frank Munson will be the trumpet soloist during the presentation of Morton Gould's "Pavanne." Joseph Trenton will be the baritone horn soloist for "Trees" by Oscar Rasbach.

Other selections in the early portion of the concert include "March Religioso" by W. P. Chambers; "Men of Ohio," a march by Henry Fillmore; Joseph McCarthy's "Alice Blue Gown;" "March of the Toys" by Victor Herbert, and "March of the Slide Trombones" by Raymond Scott.

Also on the program are "My Hero" by Oscar Strauss; "Manhattan Beach" a march by John Philip Sousa; "Begin The Beguine" by Cole Porter; "New Colonial March" by R. B. Hall and finally, the National Anthem.

More Than Half Of Queen Annes Votes Challenged

CENTREVILLE, Aug. 13 (AP) — Attorneys for H. C. Byrd and George P. Mahoney challenged more than half of the ballots they examined today as the long battle for the Democratic nomination for governor came back to Queen Annes County.

Together, the opposing lawyers challenged 395 of the 790 paper ballots they went over.

Attorneys for Byrd, apparent winner of the nomination in the primary election June 28, found something to complain about on 284 Mahoney ballots.

Representatives of Mahoney challenged 111 ballots cast for Byrd.

When they called it quits for the day, the lawyers had looked at about 720 of the 4,000 ballots cast in the county.

At stake were the county's three nominating votes in the Democratic State Convention and Mahoney needed them to upset the result of the primary, in which Byrd got 80 unit votes and Mahoney 72.

Mahoney also needs the four unit votes in Talbot County, where Chief Judge William R. Horney of the Second Judicial Circuit today began his personal review of 289 ballots challenged there.

Today's action here was not actually a recount.

When the Queen Annes election supervisors made their recount they did not keep separate the ballots challenged by opposing attorneys.

Mahoney now contends in a court test the election supervisors "arbitrarily and capriciously" counted more than 700 ballots they should have thrown out. In order to bring the questioned ones to court, the attorneys now have to toil again through the 4,000 votes cast in the county.

Today's challenges were based again on unorthodox marks on the ballots—corruptions of the legal "X" voters are supposed to put in the blocks in front of the candidates' names, dots, holes, tears.

Phone Union Vetoes Offer

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 13 (AP)—A union spokesman said today a Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. proposal for a one-year extension of its present wage contract was turned down on the union side of the bargaining table.

The spokesman for the CIO Communications Workers of America said the union made a counter-request for hospitalization, a minimum pension of $100 a month and shorter wage progression schedules.

The CWA reply brought a temporary halt to negotiations for a new contract which began here yesterday. The present contract, covering about 4,000 C. and P. employes in West Virginia, expires Sept. 12.

The company announced yesterday its proposal for extending the present agreement. The proposal was accompanied by a statement citing lower corporate and individual earnings and other economic factors.

Bedford Boy Falls From Moving Car

A three-year-old boy was seriously injured early last night when he tumbled from his father's car on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Fred Wilfong of Bedford, Pa., said he was driving west on the Turnpike between Sideling and Rays Hill tunnels when the accident happened at about 6 p. m. (EDT).

Wilfong said his son, Fred Jr., accidentally opened the door and fell onto the roadway. The driver of the car behind managed to stop in time to avoid hitting the child, and drove him the 23 miles to Bedford Valley Hospital.

Attaches at the hospital said the boy was in serious condition late last night.

His injuries included a possible skull fracture, rib fractures, multiple contusions and abrasions of the forehead, and of both arms and legs, a large laceration of the forehead, and multiple lacerations of the back and scalp.

The Weather

The "cool Spell" enjoyed by Cumberlanders during the past few days may be over. Yesterday's high official temperature was 79 degrees, an increase over the previous day, but still cool. The low was 48 and at 6 p. m. the relative humidity registered 43 per cent. Today's forecast calls for fair weather, with the highest temperatures between 78 and 85.

Cows Supplying Milk In State Need TB Tests

Dairymen To Be Notified Soon

All cows supplying milk for sale in Maryland must be tuberculin-tested in accordance with the rules and regulations of Federal and state authorities, according to Dr. Winter R. Frantz, city and county health officer, and J. B. Dowling, sanitarian for the health department.

The tuberculin test must be made at least once a year and at such times as the authorities designate.

The test records or official notice that the herd has been tested must be available at the Health Department. No accredited areas will be accepted after January 1955.

Health authorities here said yesterday that all dairies and milk producers for the Cumberland milkshed, whether they come from Maryland, West Virginia or Pennsylvania, will receive a notice of the test regulation next week.

The tuberculin requirement is in addition to the brucellosis test, which also was made mandatory by a regulation adopted May 21 by the State Board of Health.

Brucellosis is a costly disease in infected herds due to loss of calves and lowered milk production. The disease in humans, commonly known as undulant fever, is caused by the same germ.

The new regulation makes it compulsory for owners of beef and dairy cattle to place their herds under one of two control plans before the end of this year.

Owners choosing to have their herds placed under Plan A must have all their cattle tested by January 1, 1955, and all the infected animals must be slaughtered immediately. If cattle are placed under Plan B they must be tested by January 1, 1955, but infected cattle do not have to be removed for slaughter until December 31, 1955.

Street Oiling Crews Are In South End

Street Commissioner William H. Buchholtz reported yesterday that the street oiling program is proceeding in the South End area.

Work has been delayed as a result of rains and the need to clear city streets from the results of two severe storms which hit the city since late in June.

The commissioner said citizens are still spoiling the careful work done by the oiling crews, by removing barriers before the oiled surface has had a chance to cure.

He warned that it will not be possible for crews to come back and repair any such damage.

Property Suit Dismissal Asked Of Court Here

Deny Allegations In Equity Action

Joseph W. Lewis and Dorothy E. Lewis, his wife, 1100 Ella Avenue, through Attorney William R. Carscaden, have prepared an answer for Allegany County Circuit Court asking dismissal of an equity suit brought against them several days ago by Jerald N. Barrett and Jeannette M. Barrett, his wife, 113 Pennsylvania Avenue.

The Barretts had asked the court to declare null and void a deed which they signed in 1949 conveying property on East Mary Street to the Lewises. The Barretts contended that they thought they were signing a mortgage to secure a loan Lewis had made to Barrett so that he would not lose his property.

Deny Allegations

Denying many of the allegations of the Barretts, the respondents say that the Barretts assured Lewis that his (Barrett's) father would advance $600 toward the purchase price. It was understood and agreed, the Lewises said, that upon payment of the $600 the parties would enter into a contract of sale wherein the property would be sold by the Lewises to the Barretts for a sum equal to the amount paid for the property by Lewis.

They assert that the contract of sale was prepared but never executed because the $600 was not paid.

In another denial the respondents state that the deed was executed in the offices of Attorney F. Brooke Whiting and that thereafter Attorney Wilbur V. Wilson was requested to prepare a contract for sale of the property. The Barretts had said that Wilson prepared the deed.

Contract Prepared

The contract of sale provided for the sale of the Mary Street property for $3,890 less the $600, which was to have been the down payment. Six per cent interest also was to have been charged.

As the Barretts could not make the down payment on the property, the Lewises state, they notified the Barretts that they would have to pay $35 a month rent until they could arrange to purchase the property and pay off the respondents' investment. They paid $1,050, covering a period from May 1, 1950 to May 1, 1953, the answer states. When the Barretts asked the Lewises to consider the rental paid as a down payment, the request was refused and the Barretts thereafter ceased to pay any rental, the answer says.

Furthermore, the Lewises answer that they offered to convey the property to the complainants on numerous occasions, provided that the Barretts would pay the amount of money which the Lewises had invested in the property, together with interest thereon, plus state, county and city taxes, water rent and insurance, all of which was paid by the Lewises. Arrangements for the purchase never were made.

Not A Contract

In addition, the Lewises contend that prior to the time the Barretts vacated the property they removed the kitchen sink, electric fixtures, heat registers, spigots and parts of spigots and other fixtures which were a part of the real estate, and that Barrett has threatened to do bodily harm to Lewis.

Again in denial of an allegation, the respondents refute the complainants' contention that the deed was actually intended as a contract or instrument to secure the monies loaned.

In their answer, the Lewises aver that Attorneys F. Brooke Whiting and Wilbur V. Wilson are leading practicing attorneys of this county and that their integrity and honesty is above reproach. The papers prepared by them contained the understanding and agreement of the parties in regard to the property.

Finally, the Lewises state that the property was sold by them to bona fide purchasers August 10 for $5,200 which has been paid them in full for the property.

The Lewises ask the court to set the matter for immediate trial or require the Barrett's to file a bond in the amount of at least $5,200.

'Pirates' On River Raid Gas Station

West Virginia State Police at Romney are on the trail of a crew of "pirates" who plundered a riverside gas station and got away in two boats—stolen boats.

Trooper G. H. Phillips said the thieves broke a window to get into Odell (Ed) Buckbee's service station on State Route 28 north of Romney.

They got $35 to $40 in cash, a quantity of cigarets, candy and other loot, and left.

Phillips said the theft was discovered early yesterday. At about the same time, the two boats were reported missing. One belongs to David Gilpin, district forestry worker in Hampshire County.

Both boats had been taken from a landing near the rear of the gas station, which is along the South Branch Potomac River.

A police shore party located the boats later yesterday 1½-hours by boat downstream, near the Blue Beach section.

There was no trace of the loot or of the "pirates."

First Concrete Pour Scheduled On Flood Wall

Repairs To Bridge Piers Is Completed

The Wright Contracting Company of Columbus, Ga., is expected Monday morning to make the first pour of concrete for the flood wall which is being built on the West Side in connection with the $17,000,000 Cumberland-Ridgeley Flood Protection program.

Final adjustments of the equipment for the modern batch plant were being made yesterday by factory representatives.

The project will include the construction of some 780 feet of concrete flood wall, averaging about 17 feet high, from near the Moose Home to a point near Long Avenue and Water Street.

Forms Are In Place

Steel sheeting has been driven into the ground for some 600 feet of the area, and movable forms have been prepared. One foundation form is in place for the start of the project.

The flood wall is part of the system of concrete walls and earth levees which will be built along the Potomac River to protect Cumberland and Ridgeley from devastating floods.

Meanwhile, the E. J. Albrecht Company has completed reinforcing two piers of the Western Maryland Bridge at the site of the old Industrial Dam.

Encased In Concrete

The original piers were not set on solid rock and have suffered damage from water erosion.

Under the direction of the Corps of Engineers, the contractor drove steel piling down to solid rock around each of the piers and filled in the steel enclosed areas with solid concrete.

The contractor has also breached a coffer dam which was built in connection with the pier job, allowing the waters of Wills Creek to flow into the river.

Miss Ridgely Eliminated In State Pageant

Janet Ridgely, Cumberland's representative in the "Miss Maryland" contest Thursday night in Baltimore, failed to finish in the first three places.

Through an error, Miss Ridgely had at first been listed as a runner-up in the contest.

Miss Ridgely, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ridgely, 328 Fayette Street, performed a modern dance in the talent contest. She recently participated in a national contest at Buckeye Lake, Ohio, at which "Miss Majorette of 1954" was selected.

Winner of the "Miss Maryland" title was Phyllis Leftwich, 19-year-old blue-eyed brunette from Dundalk. She was entered as Dundalk's "Teen Queen" of Middle River.

Runnersup were Jacqueline Rew, "Queen of the Chesapeake," and Penny Nethken, "Miss English Consul," both of the Baltimore area.

Thieves 'Get Bird' From Local Lawns

Detective Lt. James E. Van is wondering who's "getting the bird" these days.

Van posted a notice to that effect at Police Headquarters when it developed that an epidemic of thefts of lawn ornaments has plagued the city for the past several days.

Most of the ornaments have been plaster replicas of birds and such. The latest thefts involved a couple of comparatively expensive flamingos.

About a dozen birds have been stolen, Van said, adding that most of the thefts have taken place in the southeast section of the city.

Attorney Says Petition Rule Is Too Strict

Carscaden Asserts Identity Only Question

William R. Carscaden yesterday took exception to rules set up by City Attorney Thomas B. Finan for counting names signed to petitions calling for a referendum on the overhead expressway program.

The local attorney, who presented the petitions to the Mayor and Council on Monday, said the ruling a petitioner has to sign his name in the same manner as it appears on the registration books "appears to be without foundation."

In his letter of instructions on the validation, Finan had pointed out "it would appear to me that the name on the petition must appear on the registration book, and if there is any variation between the name on the petition and the name on the registration book it should not be counted."

Says Laws Are Liberal

Carscaden's letter on the subject follows:

"Certain statements have appeared in the newspaper concerning the petition which was filed with Mayor Eves in regard to 2,185 voters in Cumberland requesting the City Charter be amended in order to prevent the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland entering into any contracts, etc. with the State Roads Commission in conection with the construction of the overhead bridge.

"This is certainly not a matter to be tried in the newspaper and, in my opinion, the terms and the provisions of the City Charter must be carried out. The statement that a petitioner has to sign his or her name in exactly the same manner in which it appears on the registration books in order to be counted, appears to be without foundation.

"Laws concerning referenda are liberally construed, the underlying principle being that the people are exercising a right reserved by them. There is no requirement in the Cumberland City Charter setting forth the exact manner in which a petitioner must sign his or her name. The law simply requires that a person be a qualified voter and that the voter's address should be given.

Cites Legal Opinions

"The exact question involved in this case has already been decided by certain courts. One court held that a married woman could sign her name as Mrs. John Smith, even though her name appeared on the registration books as Dorothy Smith.

"As stated by the Court 'ther is nothing in the Charter provisions or in the General Law that requires a married woman to sign a petition of this nature with the same given name as was used by her at the time of registration.

"The Charter merely requires that the petition be signed by registered qualified electors and is silent as to the form the signature must take . . . . the question is simply one of identity. If reasonably satisfied by such examination that the two signatures are those of the same person, they should be approved regardless of the given name or initials that are used.'

"It should be further pointed out that even if the Mayor is not convinced of the authenticity of the signatures, he is required by law to state specific defects and shall further explain how the defects, if any, in the petition can be remedied.

"It is felt that it is necessary to send a copy of this letter to the newspapers in order to make public the contention of the petitioners since your statement was printed quite some time ago. A copy is also being sent to Mayor Eves so that the letter will become a part of the official record."
